The Public are cautioned to besoare of counterfeited Five Dollar Bills of the Bank of the United States, and Twenty Dollar Bills of the Bank of North America, feveral of which have appeared in circulation within a few days paft's they are a good ge-meral imitation of the genuine Bills, but may be diftinguifhed by the following MARKS.

ADVERTISER.

Five Dollar Bills of the Bank of the United States.

ALL that have appeared have the letter F. for their Alphabetical Mark. The Texture of the Paper is thicker and whiter and it takes the ink more freely than the genuine paper. The O. in the word Company is fmaller The O. in the word Company is finaller than the M. and other letters of that word, fo that a line extended from the top of the O, fo to touch the top of the M. would extend con-fiderably above the range of the whole word. In the word United the letters are narrow-erand closer together than the self of the bill The r and f in the word promiler are not pevallel, the f inclining much more forward than the r. n the i.

The engraving is badly executed, the fit okes of all the Letters are fironger and the device in the margin particularly ismuch coarier and appears darker than in the true bills. Some eithe counterfeits bear date in 1791-Where-asthe Bank was not in operation till Decem-ber, and no five dollar bills were iffued in that year.

Twenty Dollar Bills of the Bank of North America. ALL that have appeared have the letter B for their alphabetical mark.

B for their alphabetical mark. They are printed on a paper nearly fimilar to that of the conterfect Five Dollar Notes show deferibed; the engraving is betterexe-cated, and they approach nearer to the ap-parance of the genuine bills. The fine ruled lines through the word Twon-by, in the body of the bill, are innumber thur-there in the genuine bills, and but sweive in the counterfeirs. The word Company is much like the fame word in the Five Dollar Bills as defer ibed a-bove, the obeing lefs than the m, and others to bove.

There is no ftroke to the t in the word North whereas in the genuine bills the ftroke is well defined.

defined. The letters ent in the word Twenty, to the left hand at the bottom, do not come down to the line, but are forth at stogive an stregular appearance to the word, the Tw and they go-ing below them. The Signature J. Nixon, has the appear-ace of being written with tamp-black and oil, and differs from the other ink used in printing the bills and the cashier's fignature. It is fuppoled thele forgeries were committed in fome of the Southern States, as all the coun-terists that have appeared, have tome from thence, and two perfons have been approhend-ed in Virginia, on fufpicion of being the suchoss of them. of them

The reward of ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS will be paid to any Perfon or Perfons who that different and profecute to conviction the feveral offenders of the following defcriptions or any of them, viz.

The perion or perions, who manufactured the paper on which the Bills are printed. The periou or perions, who engraved the plates.

The printer, or printers, of the bills. Every perfon who has acted as a principal in any other way, in the counterfeiting and utter-ing the faid bills. THOMAS WILLING, Prefident of the Bank United States. JOHN NIXON, Prefident of the Bank of North America. By order of the Committees of the Ref. pective Boards. Philadelphia, March 28, 1794.
