An Essay on Slavery,

Designed to exhibit in a new point of view its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.

UNITED STATES.
PETERSBURG, May 16.
Copy of a letter from a gentleman at the Southward, to his friend living near Petersburg, dated Fort Independence, St.
Mary's, April 2, 1794.

"While I was in the upper parts of Georgia, I wrote you several times; but the great revolution that has taken place, and the much greater that's likely to take place in Florida, and this country, caused me to come here from the town of Washington, where I have resided these six months past, but am not allowed to land on the other side of the river, without being sent immediately to St. Augustine, and confined; I make no doubt but you have before this, heard of the confinement of Abner Hammond, Colonel John M'Intosh, J. P. Wagon, my father, Captain Lang, and William Plowden, in St. Augustine, on suspicion of carrying on a clandestine correspondence with a party of Georgians, who are about to join the French against Florida; Hammond and M'Intosh, are in the Moro Castle in the Havannah; are allowed eight bits per day for their support, as well as the privilege of the fort; the whole of the others are in St. Augustine, and allowed a room in the barracks; and my father has been allowed to write out to the family.—A few days ago, the Florida scout, came opposite Temple, and played us Malbrook on the French Horn: My brother Billy was along with them, who informed me, that Mr. Queen, was about to write to me to invoke me not to join the French; and also, desired me to inform you of the same circumstance, viz. if either of us did so, my father's property would be forfeited; however the business is now carried too far to retract.—The Spaniards have burnt all their houses between St. John's and St. Mary's, without distinction, and there is upwards of twenty families moved on this side of the river, who are settled on Merit's Bluff, a mile below Temple. Billy informed me, that Colonel Howard had 26 cannon at the Cowford, and was building a Block-house at Trout Creek: They have sent several vessels from Cuba, with men for Augustine, the most of which have been taken by the French. We have about fifty men at this station, with a large store of provisions, and expect Colonel S. Hammond on in ten days, when we expect something capital may terminate.

The spirit of party work since your departure from this country, has been extreme; numbers have been killed, the laws openly violated and trampled on, and what is to be more lamented, those violations have been committed by those persons who have been appointed by our legislators to distribute justice & the benefit of our laws to the people.

Squire Flemming, John Houston, and a number of others, have been killed by the Indians. A few days ago, they killed a woman at Coleraine Fort, a few miles above us; in short we have been in a continual state of war ever since you left this country, and now it has got to a higher pitch than ever; our fort is in a manner surrounded by enemies, the Indians on one side, the Spaniards on the other, and the deluded people under the direction of J. Seagrove and old King, on the other two; but we flatter ourselves we have fortitude enough to carry ourselves safe through the impending dangers."

CHARLESTON, May 5.
A Letter from an officer on board the French privateer l'Aime Point Petre, Capt. Talbot, that sailed from this Port a short time since, and who has taken and carried into Savannah, the ship Grenada Packet of London, last from Pensicola, mentions, that the cargo of their prize, consisting of fur and skins, is valued at 8,000l. and that the specie they have as yet got out of her, is only about 1200
