CONTINUATION OF Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, June 7.

The following extraordinary circumftance is re-ported to have recently occurred at Anghrim, on the borders of the county of Wexford, in Ireland : A young woman employed in the field fell affeep, and as the lay on the grafs, an afp crept down her throat ; on awaking the became very fick, and for fome time continued very ill, with all the fymptoms of a rapid decay : a furgeon was at length applied to, and on communicating to him thefe circum ftances, he gave her medicine, and ordered that fhe fhould be fulpended from the cieling, with her head down, as long as the could bear to remain in that polition; the confequence was, the reptile, of a greenifh yellow colour, about four inches long, and one and a half in circumference, came from her mouth, attended by eleven young ones. The young woman is now perfectly recovered. June 8.

Capt. Haley, of the Hope, arrived in the Downs on the 23d of May, in lat 46. 11. long. 12. 30, faw feven line of battle ships, a frigate and a cutter brig steering about W. S. W. the cutter brig lying to windward, burning and destroying feveral vessels, one of which blew up a league or two ahead of us; by the explosion I fupposed her to be loadened with gun powler. In lat. 40, 30, long. 8. was boarded by a lugger privateer of 18 guns, who examined our papers (American) and fuffered us to pafs. From the number of Englishmen on board they must have taken a great many prizes.

Received at Charleston, by the Federalist, capt. Pratt. LONDON, June 9. We are now enabled to flate fome particulars respecting the difagreeable news from India. We are not yet in poffeffion of the detail, although we have received the Madras Gazettes down to the 9th of January laft, which probably may be precluded from publishing any fuch news.

According to private letters received from a gentleman high in the company's fervice in India, we learn, that the 25th battalion of Sepoys, commanded by Capt. Grant, having been ordered to Batavia, the troops refufed ta embark ; on which the governor-general and council ordered this corps to be difbanded. The troops refufed to deliver up their arms ; the 29th battalion of Sepoys was ordered against them, and at length fired on them, by which feveral men were killed.

Some days after, four other battalions of native troops were ordered to Ganjam, on the coaft, but refuied to proceed, until the 20th battalion was pu-nished for having fired on their companions. The native troops remained in this flate of mutiny when the laten accounts left Bengal; and it is even reported, that the governor had ordered all the artillery from Dum-Dum (not far diftant from Calcut ta, and where a great quantity of ordnance is ufu-ally kept) into the fort of Calcutta, as a place of fafety. But we cannot vouch for the truth of this latter intelligence. Private advices from India alfo mention, that feveral of the British officers of the company's effa blifhment were in a flate of mutipy; that an officer of high rank acts as their prefident, and that they have a regular chain of correspondence throughout India. We shall be very happy to be enabled to contradict these rumors, which are truly alarming, but there is fome confolation in knowing, that the thip which carried out the regulations of our government, for placing the company's officers on the fame footing as the king's, was feen going up the Bengal river, as the Major Pinckney (American ship) was coming away.

BONN, June 6.

"As I informed you yellerday the French have made themfelves mallers of Aldenkirchen, and the formidable intrenchments which the Auftrians had erected on the heights. They were attacked the 4th of June by the divisionary General Colaud.-The enemy fought with the greatest obstinacy, and the victory was diffuted from nine in the morning ill one in the afternoon. In the mean time the Prince de Wurtemburg had fent an officer of the huffars with orders to abandon that polition, but the officer and dilpatches fell into the hands of the French. The enemy fought in conftant expectati on of receiving a reinforcement, till they found them felves furrounded by the republican troops, then they attempted to open themfelves a pallage, and twice they were repulled with immenfe flaughter-they finally furrendered after having feen a vaft number of their comrades fall. Among the flain are a lieutenant colonel and two captains. Yesterday afternoon there arrived here near two thousand prifoners, among them are 39 officers, the most of them of the regiment of Jordes. The Colonel of that regiment is expected to arrive to day with the reft of the prisoners

COLOGNE, 18th Prairial. A courier arrived this morning informs us, that the left wing of the army of the Sambre and the Meufe, purfued its victorious march to the right bank of the Rhine. The following is the official account which confirms the capture of the Autorian entrenchments at Aldenkirchen.
