and approved notes, seeining payment in either money or prizes, in ten days after drawing, will be received for any number not less than to tickets.

This Lottery will afford an elegant specimen of the private buildings to be crecked in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these prawings it is proposed to creck two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this lottery is sold, and to convey them, when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A nett deduction of five per cent. will be made to destray she necessary expenses of printing, &c., and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be crecked within the city of Washington.

The Drawing will commence as soon as the tickets are fold off.—The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished; and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed, are to be considered as given towards the fund for the University; it being determined to settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing, and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the late Commissioners assisted in the management of the Hotel Lottery are requested to undertake this arduous task a second time on behalf of the public; a sufficient number of these having kindly accepted, it is hoped that the friends to a National University and the other sederal objects may continue to favor the design.

By accounts received from the different parts of the Contineut as well as from Europe, where the tickets have been sent for sale, the public are affored that the drawing will speedily remmense, and that the care and caution unavoidably necessary to insure a STOP THE THIEVES!!!

LAST Wednesday Evening, October 19, netween the hours of 7 and 100°clock, the bed 100m of Mr Ricketts in O'Eller's hotel was entered, either by means of false keys, or at the window, by some villain or villains, who must have been acquainted with the situation of the house (as the door was found locked after they had committed the these) who took away from amongst several trauks, ONE which contained a valuable part of Mr. Rickett's property, but of which he is not yet able to ascertain the contents particularly. After bringing the said trunk away, and emptying it of upwards of a thousand dollars in cash and bank notes, the villains lest it behind the circus, during the time that the performances of the evening were going forward.

It is earnessly requested, that all tavern-keepers on the stage roads, and the ferry houses, as well as all civil officers, may be watchful in securing suspicious persons, who may have a redundance of eash, which their appearance would by no means bespeak them to be possessed.
