FOR SALE,
An elegant HOUSE, No. 78, Walnut Street;
WHICH is 25 feet front, by 17 1/2 feet deep, with lot adjoining, 20 1-2 feet wide, by 72 feet 8 inches deep. (This lot is back of the house occupied by George Willing, Esq.) The house is completely finished in every respect. It is 50 feet deep, has two large parlours, the front one 24 feet, the back one 22 feet, by 18 1-2 feet, a handsome drawing-room 24 1-2 feet by 24 feet. The rooms below, the drawing-room and the chambers adjoining, have mahogany doors, and these as well as the rooms above them have a communication with each other. The height in the first and second story is 12 feet, and have floce cornices, and nine rooms up stairs, besides the garrets which are divided into three rooms, a good kitchen with house, milk and bathing-houses, a large ice house, a pump in the yard, and a 3 feet 3 inch alley that leads into Fourth-street. The cellars are laid with lime, and floored with two inch plank, and plastered. The yard is well paved, and the house is clear ground-rent. All the rooms have bells in them, and the chamber bells ring in the garret, as well as in the entry down stairs. All the chambers have white tile except the one next to the drawing room, which has as well as the drawing-room and the two parlours by low, marble chimney pieces. The drawing-room, the two parlours below, and the entry, are papered up to the third story: In the room over the kitchen is an open stove. In the wash room there is an oven, and the back buildings, from the cellar, all the way up have large closets, and in the cellar is a large bottle rack, a wine store is taken off of the cellar, and three bins to hold bottled liquor are made in said room with padlocks to them; the whole cellar and the coach loft are as well plastered as any room in the house. In short, the house is in every respect completely finished. Possession shall be given in ten days after the house is sold. Two brick stables in Walnut-street, with two coach houses, one of them will hold two carriages, the other one. The smallest stable has room for three, and the largest for four horses. It is 21 feet front on Walnut-street by 30 feet 3 inches deep. The house has excellent lofts over them. The building is arched and laid with lime and two-inch plank, and the cellars will hold about 100 pipes of wine: Is clear of ground rent, and has the privilege of an 11 1-2 feet alley, that leads into Fifth-street. Also a brick store, 33 feet front on Fourth-street, by 50 feet deep, which might at a small expence be turned into a handsome dwelling house having been so contrived in the building. It has a yard 48 feet 6 inches wide, by 24 feet deep, has a rain water pump, and other conveniences, and the cellar is laid with two inch plank, and is now rented at 40 dollars per month. This building is subject to a ground rent of 11 dollars 3-4 per annum. The store and stables I would give immediate possession of.
