The PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

To the People of the United States, nnouncing his intention of retiring from public life at the expiration of the present constitutional term of

Treasury of the United States. NOTICE is hereby given to all persons who are or may be Creditors of the United States, for any sums of the Funded Debt, or Stock, bearing a present interest of fix

In may be Creditors of the United States, for any fums of the Funded Debt, or Stock, bearing a present interest of fix per centum per annuon.

18. That pursuant to an Act of Congress passed on the 28th day of April, 1796, intitled an act in addition to an act, intituled "An act making surther provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt," the said debt or stock will be reimbursed and paid in manner following, to wit. "First, by dividends to be made on the last days of March, June and September for the present year, and from the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to the year one thousand feven hundred & eighteen inclusive, at the rate of one and one half per centum upon the original capital. Secondly, by dividends to be made on the last day of December for the present year, and from the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and sinety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and sinety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and sinety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and sinety-seven, to the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, of fuch sum, as will be then adequate, according to the contract, for the sinal redemption of the said stock."

2d. All distinction between payments on account of Interest and Principal being thus abolished by the establishment of the permanent rule of reimbursement above described, it has become necessary to vary accordingly the powers of attorney for receiving dividends; the public creditors will therefore observe that the following form is established for all powers of attorney which may be evanted after the due promuleation of this notice, viz.
