

FOR SALE,
An elegant HOUSE, No. 73, Walnut-street;

WHICH is 25 feet front, by 171 feet deep, with a lot adjoining, 20 1/2 feet wide, by 72 feet 8 inches deep. (This lot is back of the house occupied by George Willing, Esq.) The house is completely finished in every respect. It is 50 feet deep, has two large parlours, the front one 24 feet, the back one is 22 feet, by 18 1/2 feet, a handsome drawing-room, 24 1/2 feet by 24 feet. The rooms below, the drawing-room and the chambers adjoining, have mahogany doors, and these as well as the rooms above them have a communication with each other. The height in the first and second story is 12 feet, and have flico cornices, and nine rooms up stairs, besides the garrets, which are divided into three rooms, a good kitchen, wash-house, milk and bathing-houses, a large ice-house, a pump in the yard, and a 3 feet 3 inch alley, that leads into Fourth-street. The cellars are laid with lime, and floored with two inch plank, and plastered. The yard is well paved, and the house is clear of ground rent. All the rooms have bells in them, and the chamber bells ring in the garret, as well as in the entry down stairs. All the chambers have white tiles, except the one next to the drawing room, which has a well as the drawing-room and the two parlours below, marble chimney pieces. The drawing-room, the two parlours below, and the entry, are papered up to the third story; in the room over the kitchen is an open stove. In the wash room there is an oven, and the back buildings, from the cellar, all the way up, have large closets, and in the cellar is a large bottle rack, a wine floor is taken off of the cellar, and three bins to hold bottled liquor are made in said room with padlocks to them; the whole cellar and the cock-loft are as well plastered as any room in the house. In front, the house is in every respect completely finished. Possession shall be given in ten days after the house is sold. Two brick stables in Walnut-street, with two coach houses, one of them will hold two carriages, the other one. The smallest stable has room for three, and the largest for four horses. It is 12 1/2 feet front on Walnut-street by 50 feet, 3 inches deep. They have excellent light over them. The building is arched and laid with lime and two-inch plank, and the cellars will hold about 100 pipes of wine. Is clear of ground rent, and has the privilege of an 11 1/2 feet alley, that leads into Fifth-street. Also a brick floor, 33 feet front on Fourth-street, by 50 feet deep, which might at a small expense be returned into a handsome dwelling house having been contrived in the building. It has a yard 28 feet 6 inches wide, by 24 feet deep, has a rain water pump, and other conveniences, and the cellar is laid with two inch plank, and is now rented at 40 dollars per month. This building is subject to a ground rent of 12 dollars 3/4 per annum. The store and stables I would give immediate possession of. GEORGE MEADE.
No. 73, Walnut Street.

Terms of payment for the foregoing property, viz.—1630l. may lay one year certain, after the sale and if the interest is regularly paid, that humane, worthy, good, and friendly man, Edward Stiles, Esq. says it may lay as long as the purchaser pleases (purely he says to oblige me) the interest being regularly paid.
1800l. to be paid in approved notes, and approved indorsers at 12 months, the remainder in approved notes and approved indorsers, at 15, 18, and 24 months, the property to be secured for the payment. The stables may be paid for in like manner, and the store too, all but 4000 dollars, which must be paid in an approved note, and approved indorsers, at 6 months, the whole payable with interest.

To be Sold,
AT PUBLIC VENDUE.

On Thursday the 6th day of April next, at 12 o'clock, at Dougherty's tavern, in the town of Winchester, in Virginia, the following lands, situate in the said State, viz.

No. 1.—430 Acres, Of excellent land on the waters of Back-creek, in Frederick county, on the great road leading to the South Branch, about ten miles from Winchester, 100 acres of which is rich bottom, a fine stream running through it, with several springs, the trees in the bottom are chiefly sugar maple, black walnut, hickory and locust. There is a log dwelling and out-houses, some meadow made, and 40 acres of upland cleared. On this tract there is a good mill-pond, where an under-shot-mill might be erected.

No. 2.—800 Acres, Situate in Hampshire county, on the north branch of the Potomack, and on a branch called Cabbins-run, about eight miles from Fort Cumberland. On this tract is a large quantity of rich bottom, fit for meadow or the culture of hemp, the upland remarkably good, being chiefly timbered with walnut and hickory. The above tract is in two surveys of 400 acres each.

No. 3.—200 Acres, Situate in Franklin county, about ten miles from Winchester. On this tract there is a dwelling house and part of the land is cleared, the remainder is finely timbered.

No. 4.—A Lot of Ground, In the town of Woodstock, Shanandoah county, whereon is erected a two story house, and other improvements, and a ten acre lot for the convenience of said town lot.

No. 5.—250 Acres, Situate about two miles from Woodstock. Part of this tract is in cultivation, is finely timbered, and a good quantity of meadow may be made.

No. 6.—400 Acres, Situate in Hampshire county, on George Andes's mill run, on a branch of the Catachton. This tract is finely timbered, there is good bottom land, which might be easily converted into meadow.

No. 7.—One moiety of 5000 Acres, Lying on the waters of Hughes's river, in Harrison county. This was purchased at one quarter of a dollar per acre, with above 8 years ago.

No. 8.—41,000 Acres, Lying in the counties of Wythe, Washington, and Grayson (the greater part in Wythe,) on the waters of Cripple creek and Fox creek, branches of New River, and on the south fork of Holstein.

No. 9.—10,000 Acres, Lying in the county of Hardy, on the waters of Great Cacapon and North River.

The terms of payment will be one third part of the purchase money to be paid in hand at the time of executing the deed or deeds of conveyance, the remaining two thirds to be paid in equal instalments, at 12, 18, and 24 months thereafter securing those payments by mortgaging the premises.

Should any person wish to purchase at private sale, application may be made to John Bolker, Esq. near Winchester; David Holmes, Esq. of Winchester; or by letters, (post paid,) to the subscriber in Philadelphia, being the owner of said lands, who will personally attend the sale on the day abovementioned.

The Creditors of Scott and M. Michael, formerly merchants of this city, and who failed in the year 1763, or 1764, (and from whom the subscriber purchased bills of exchange to amount of several hundred pounds sterling, which have lain by him ever since,) are requested, EVERY MAN OF THEM that is living, to meet at the City-Tavern on Tuesday, the 15th of November next, at 6 o'clock in the evening, in order to oblige Charles Cox, formerly of this city, now of New-Jersey, and John Bayard, formerly of said city, and speaker of the House of Assembly of said state, now of Brunswick, New-Jersey, assignees of said Scott & M. Michael, to come forward and pay over the monies they have had in their hands belonging to the creditors these 33 or 34 years. Some years ago the creditors were called together; Mr. Cox appeared in behalf of himself and Mr. Bayard, and alleged that they were apprehensive they might be brought into trouble if they parted with the money (which I apprehend is some thousands,) as his Britannic Majesty had a debt due him for government bills: it was however agreed by the creditors met, that the assignees should take the opinion of counsel; they did so, and it was that they would be safe in dividing the money among the creditors. I urged Mr. Cox to bring the business to a final close; his answer was, it would be but a trifling sum; my reply was, if ever so trifling, I would have my proportion of it. It has however lain over.

I therefore hope the creditors will now come forward and oblige the assignees to divide whatever they have, and they ought to pay interest too.

The creditors of the late Abel James, who stopped payment in 1784, are requested to meet at the City-Tavern, on Tuesday, 8th November, at 6 o'clock in the evening, in order to oblige the assignees, (John Field and others) to close their affairs: My demand is for a balance due on a returned bill of 1000l. sterling, costs, damages and interest.
George Meade.
Philadelphia, November 2d, 1796. dtw N.

The Creditors of Van Vleck and Barton, and William Barton, & Co. (who failed in the year 1784) are earnestly requested to meet at the City-Tavern, on Wednesday the 9th November, at 6 o'clock in the evening in order to oblige the surviving assignees, Stephen Aullin, and Andrew Hodge to close these affairs. John Chandler, deceased, who was one of the assignees, once offered to the subscriber 12/6 in the pound for his debt, which is for a returned bill of 8000 guilders, with costs damages and interest, and the assignees have never paid but 5/11 in the pound, though they assigned goods belonging to William Barton & Co. in the year 1784 or 1785, and allowed a very creditor the liberty of buying to the amount of 10/1 in the pound of their debts.

Philadelphia, November 2d, 1796. dtw N.

The Creditors of Clement Biddle & Co. are requested to meet at the City-Tavern on Monday the 14th inst.—in order to oblige the assignees to a settlement of their affairs, which have lain over their twelve years: the subscriber's demand is for a returned bill of 1000l. sterling, damages 20 per cent. and interest.

Mr. FRANCIS,
(Of the New Theatre)

TAKES this opportunity of returning thanks to his scholars and to the public. Mr. Francis intends, on his return from Maryland, to open a public academy for dancing, upon a plan entirely new. He flatters himself that his attention to his pupils hitherto renders any promises of conducting his future schemes on the most liberal and strictest terms, of propriety, totally unnecessary.

STOP THE THIEVES!!!

LAST Wednesday Evening, October 19, between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock, the bed room of Mr. Ricketts in O'Eller's hotel was entered, either by means of false keys, or at the window, by some villain or villains, who must have been acquainted with the situation of the house (as the door was found locked after they had committed the theft) who took away from amongst several trunks, ONE which contained a valuable part of Mr. Ricketts's property, but of which he is not yet able to ascertain the contents particularly. After bringing the said trunk away, and emptying it of upwards of a thousand dollars in cash and bank notes, the villains left it behind the circus, during the time that the performances of the evening were going forward.

It is earnestly requested, that all tavern-keepers on the stage roads, and the ferry houses, as well as all civil officers, may be watchful in securing suspicious persons, who may have a redundancy of cash, which their appearance would by no means belpak them to be possessed of.

One Hundred Dollars Reward

Will be given for securing the thief or thieves, and a further reward for securing them with the property.

Treasury Department,
September 28, 1796.

NOTICE is hereby given, that proposals will be received at the office of the Secretary of the Treasury until the expiration of the first day of March next ensuing, for the supply of all rations which may be required for the use of the United States, from the first day of June, 1797, to the thirty-first day of May, 1798, both days inclusive, at the places and within the districts hereafter mentioned, viz. At Otwego; at Niagara; at Presque Ile; at Sandusky Lake, and on Sandusky River; at Detroit; at Michilimackinac; at Fort-Franklin; at Pittsburgh; at Cincinnati; at Fort-Hamilton; at Fort St. Clair; at Fort-Jefferson; at Grenville; at Piquette Town and Lorainies Store; at Fort Adams; at Fort Wayne; at Fort Defiance; at any place below Fort Defiance on the Miami River to Lake Erie; at Fort Steuben; at Fort Maffac; at any place from Fort Maffac to the fourth boundary of the United States on the river Mississippi; at Fort Knox; at Ousatona.

If supplies shall be required for any posts or places not mentioned in this notice, all such supplies shall be furnished at prices proportioned to those to be paid at the posts before recited, or as may be hereafter agreed on between the United States and the Contractor.

The rations to be supplied are to consist of the following articles, viz.

- One pound two ounces of beef, or fourteen ounces of pork or bacon.
- Half a gill of rum, brandy or whiskey.
- One quart and half a pint of salt.
- Two quarts of Vinegar, } per hundred rations
- Two pounds of Soap, }
- One pound of Candles,

The rations are to be furnished in such quantities, as that there shall at all times during the said term, be sufficient for the consumption of the troops at Michilimackinac, Detroit, Niagara, and Otwego, for the term of six months in advance, and at each of the other posts, for the term of at least three months in advance, in good and wholesome provisions, if the same shall be required. It is to be understood, that the Contractor is to be at the expense and risk of insuring the supplies to the troops at each post, and that all losses sustained by the depositions of an enemy, or by means of the troops of the United States, shall be paid for at the price of the articles captured or destroyed, on the depositions of two or more persons of creditable characters, and the certificate of a commissioned officer, ascertaining the circumstances of the loss, and the amount of the articles for which compensation shall be claimed.
