Celebrated New Work.

This Day is Published,

By JOHN ORMIROD, No. 41, in Chestnut Street, (four volumes in two, neatly bound and lettered, price 2 dollars and 50 cents.)

THE LOOKER-ON,

A PERIODICAL PAPER.

By the Rev. SIMON OLIVE-BRANCH, A. M.
Ore teres modico Pallentes radere Mores
Doctus, et ingenio culpam desigere Iudo.
AUL. PERS.

My business in this State
Made me a Looker-on here in Vienna;
Where I have seen corruption boil and bubble,
Till it o'er run the flow; laws for all faults;
But faults to countenance'd, that the strong statutes
Stand like the forfeits in a barber's shop,
As much in mock as mark.

Measure for Measure.

"It appears from the dedication, that the editor of this publication, is the Rev. William Roberts, A. M. F. R. S.
Fellow of Corpus Christi College, Oxford; and from the last number, that the labor, and consequently the merit of these papers, have rested with the editor, excepting only a few contributions particularly mentioned. The editor's design has been, as he himself represents it, "to substitute the forsaken topics of morality, life, nature, and taste, in the room of shallow politics and news-paper philosophy, and to betray men, under the mask of amusement, into serious and manly thoughts. This design was laudable, and the execution was meritorious. As literary productions, these periodical papers are entitled to distinction; but their highest praise is, that they are throughout calculated to promote virtue and good manners."
