CAUTION.

Oawaw

WHEREAS very large and heavy debts are juffly due and owing from mellirs. Blair M'Clenachan and Patrick Maore, of the city of Philadelphiz, merchants, trading under the firm of Blair M'Glenachan and P. Moore, and from Blair M'Glenachan in his feparate capacity; to which, by the laws of the land, all the joint as well as feparate property of the faid Gentle-men, is, and ought to be, liable. And whereas it is clearly and fatisfactorily afcertained, that mr. Blair M'Glenachan, of the faid firm, has conveyed away to mt. John H. Hafton, his fon-in-law, to his daughter, mis M'Clenachan, and to his fon. George M'Glenachan, feveral large and valuable real eftates, as well as confiderable perfonal property, in the sity and county of Philadelphia, in the county of Lancaf-ter, in the county of New-Cafile on Delaware, and elfewhere, with a view; as it is apprehended, to de-WHEREAS very large and heavy debts are juffly ter, it the county of New-Calific on Delaware, and elfewhere, with a view, as it is apprehended, to de-feat the Creditors in the recovery of their juft debts.— This is, therefore, to forewarn all perfons whomfo-ever, againft the purchafe from the faid 'grantees, or either of them, of any portion of the faid real or per-fonal property, as the moft vigorous measures will without delay be taken to render the fame liable to the juft demands of the Creditors.

By order of the Creditors, Thomas Fitzfimons, Philip Nicklin, Ifaae Sharton, William M' Murtrie, Committee. Samuel W. Filber, Philadelphia, December 17th, 1796. 20th:0

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE caution introduced into the public prints, warning all perfons against purchasing from the grantees of Blair M Clenachan, any portion of the arge, real and perfonal effates he conveyed away to his fon-in law and to his children was the refult of a deliberation had upon the fubject by a general and numerous meeting of the creditors as well of Blair M'Clenachan and P. Moore as of Blair M'Clenachan individually. It was no more than an execu-tion of that truft confided in the fubfcribers by those creditors; a ftep which it would have been a breach of duty and honor in them to have omitted. The very statement of the fact therefore must difpel the imputation that it was either " precipitate or vindictive." It originated in a defire to fecure the property of the debtor as a fund for the payment of his just debts. It was fanctioned by the advice of council as a measure necessary to the fafety of the creditors. If the advertisement has been injurious to Mr. M'Clenachan he owes that injury to his own unjustifiable conduct, not to the lubferibers who have merely published the truth in terms as mild as the fact would admit, and who mean to invettigate in a high court of justice the validity of those purchases of which Mr. M'Cle-nachan fo confidently speaks. The subscribers therefore are bound by a sense the of duty to the creditors in general to repeat their eaution against purchasing of those grantees or either of them, and to extend the terms of it to a purchase from any other perfons (if fuch there be) to whom Mr. M'Clenachan may have made similar conveyances.

T. FITZSIMONS, (Signed) P. NICKLIN, ISAAC WHARTON, WILLIAM M'MURTRIE, SAMUEL W. FISHER. Philad. Dec. 21, 1796.
