CAUTION.

WHEREAS very large and heavy debts are justly due and owing from messire. Blair M'Glenachan and Patrick Moore, of the city of Philadelphia, merchants, trading under the firm of Blair M'Glenachan and P. trading under the arm of Blair McClenachan and P. Moore, and from Blair McClenachan in his feparate capacity; to which, by the laws of the land, all the joint as well as feparate property of the faid Centlemen, is, and ought to be, liable. And whereas it is clearly and fatisfactorily aftertained, that mr. Blair McClenachan, of the faid firm, has conveyed away to mr. John H. Mufon, his fou-in-law, to his daughter, mifs McClenachan, and to his fon, George McClenachan, feveral large and valuable real effatee, as well as confiderable personal property, in the city and county of Philadelphia, in the county of Lancaster, in the county of New-Castle on Delaware, and elsewhere, with a view, as it is apprehended, to deelsewhere, with a view, as it is apprehended, to defeat the Creditors in the recovery of their just debts .-This is, therefore, to forewarn all persons whomso-ever, against the purchase from the said grantees, or either of them, of any portion of the said real or per-sonal property, as the most vigorous measures will without delay be taken to render the same liable to the just demands of the Creditors.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE caution introduced into the public prints, warning all persons against purchasing from the grantees of Blair M'Clenachan, any portion of the large, real and personal estates he conveyed away to his son-in law and to his shildren was the result of a deliberation had upon the fubject by a general and numerous meeting of the ereditors as well of Blair M'Clenachan and P. Moore as of Blair M'Clenachan individually. It was no more than an execu-tion of that trust confided in the subscribers by those creditors: a step which it would have been a breach of duty and honor in them to have omitted. The very statement of the fact therefore must difpel the imputation that it was either "precipitate or vindictive." It originated in a defire to secure the property of the debtor as a fund for the payment of his just debts. It was fanctioned by the advice of council as a measure necessary to the safety of the creditors. If the advertisement has been injurious to Mr. McClenachan he owes that injury to his own unjustifiable conduct, not to the subferibers who have merely published the truth in terms as mild as the fact would admit, and who mean to investigate in a high court of justice the validity of those purchases of which Mr. M'Clenachan fo confidently speaks.

The subscribers therefore are bound by a sense caution against purchasing of those grantees or either of them, and to extend the terms of it to a purchase from any other persons (if such there be) o whom Mr. M'Clenachan may have made fimilar
