CAUTION.

WHEREAS very large and heavy debts are justly due and owing from messirs. Blair M'Clenachan and Patrick Moore, of the city of Philadelphia, merchants, trading under the firm of Blair M'Glenachan and P. Moore, and from Blair M'Clenachan in his separate capacity; to which, by the laws of the land, all the capacity; to which, by the laws of the land, all the joint as well as feparate property of the faid Gentlemen, is, and ought to be, liable. And whereas it is clearly and fatisfactorily afcertained, that mr. Blair McClenachan, of the faid firm, has conveyed away to mr. John H. Husson, his fon-in-law, to his daughter, miss McClenachan, and to his fon, George M'Clenachan, several large and valuable real estates, as well as confiderable perforal property, in the city and county of Philadelphia, in the county of Lancatter, in the county of New-Caftle on Delaware, and elicwhere, with a view, as it is apprehended, to de-cat the Creditors in the recovery of their just debts.— This is, therefore, to forewarn all persons whomso-ever, against the purchase from the said grantees, or either of them, of any portion of the faid real or per-fonal property, as the most vigorous measures will without delay be taken to render the same liable to he just demands of the Creditors.

By order of the Creditors Thomas Fitzsimons, Philip Nicklin, Isaac Vharton, William M. Murtrie, Committee. Philadelphia, December 17th, 1796.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE caution introduced into the public prints, warning all persons against purchasing from the grantees of Blair M'Clenachan, any portion of the large, real and perfonal estates he conveyed away to his fon-in law and to his children was the refult of a deliberation had upon the subject by a general and numerous meeting of the creditors as well of Blair M'Clenachan and P. Moore as of Blair M'Clenachan individually. It was no more than an execution of that trust confided in the subscribers by those ereditors: a step which it would have been a breach of duty and honor in them to have omitted. The very statement of the fact therefore must difpel the imputation that it was either " precipitate or vindictive." It originated in a defire to feoure the property of the debtor as a fund for the payment of his just debts. It was fanctioned by the advice of council as a measure necessary to the safety of the creditors. If the advertisement has been injurious to Mr. M'Clenachan he owes that injury to his own unjustifiable conduct, not to the fubferibers who have merely published the truth is terms as mild as the fact would admit, and who mean to investigate in a high court of justice the validity of thole purchases of which Mr. M'Cle-nachan fo confidently speaks. The subscribers therefore are bound by a sense of duty to the ereditors in general to repeat their eaution against purchasing of those grantees or either of them, and to extend the terms of it to a purchase from any other persons (if such there be) to whom Mr. M'Clenachan may have made fimilar

conveyances. (Signed)
