Grand Concert. On SATURDAY EVENING, the 25th Instant, At OELLER'S ROOM.

SIGNOR TRISOBIO, from Italy, professor of vocal music, proposes to give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, in the most complete manner, which will manifest his respect to a public, whose protection he esteems for the first time. He is happy in having engaged two ladies, his scholars, namely, Mrs. Hendray & Maillie, Konfelin, who will sing several select pieces; and Mr. Sekondary will sing an Italian air. There will be executed a duet, and a catch, by three voices. The leader of the band Mr. Collet, will perform a concerto on the violin, and Mr. Guatin another on the piano forte. Amongst several serious and comic songs which Signor Trisobio will sing, he promises to perform a trio ad libitum; that is to say, an imitation of three Italian Nuns; and afterwards the favourite comic song of the Cats. Almost all the songs which will be sung, will be printed with the music, and exposed for the convenience of subscribers to purchase them—Tickets One Dollar, to be had at Oeller's Hotel; at Mr. Bradford's book-store, No. 3, South Front-street; at Mr. Whillig's musical magazine, No. 185, market-street; at Mr. Gault's circulating library, Third-street, between Arch and Race streets; and at Mr. Trisobio, No. 66, North Front-street.—The Concert will commence at 6 o'clock.
