Grand Concert. On SATURDAY EVENING, the 25th Instant, AT OELLER'S ROOM, SIGNOR TRISOBIO, from Italy, professor of vocal music, proposes to give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, in the most complete manner, which will manifest his respect to a public, whose presence he esteems for the first time. He is happy in having engaged vocalists, his scholars, namely, Mrs. Hendry & Miss. Rossignol, who will sing several select pieces; and Mr. Sackmaster will sing an Italian air. There will be executed a duet, and a set of three voices. The ladies of the band Mr. Collet, will perform a concerto in the violin, and Mr. Guerin conductor on the piano forte. Amongst several serious and comic songs which Signor Trisobio will sing, he promises to perform a 1st and 2nd time, in full, an imitation of three Italian Nuns; and afterwards the favourite comic song of the Cors. Almost all the songs which will be sung, will be grand with the music, and expected for the amusement of subscribers with it. Tickets One Dollar, to be had at Oeller's, at Mr. Bradford's book-store, No. 8, South Front-street; at Mr. Charles circulating library, Total Street, between Arch and Race streets; and at Mr. Trisobio, No. 66, North Front-street. Sales of Depreciation Land, TO THE PUBLIC. WHEREAS a number of tracts of land commonly called Depreciation land, formerly in Westmoreland, now in Alleghany county, were sold at Greensburg, in the month of August last, by the commissioners of Westmoreland, for taxes pretended to be due for Alleghany county, in the year 1783; and whereas the said taxes were not legally assessed, nor the said commissioners authorized to sell, nor due notice of the intended sale given, the commissioners for a pre-empted tax not exceeding in the whole 231 dollars, having paid 53,333 acres of valuable land. The proprietors take this method of cautioning all persons against making payments to the said commissioners for any purchases made of them, or of purchasing any part of the said lands from any other person, as they mean to defend their property to illegally sold, as well against the commissioners aforesaid, as all other persons pretending to hold under them. For the information of their fellow-citizens they propose shortly to give a statement of the combination formed for the purchase of this property, and the names of the persons concerned therein.
