SWIFT'S EDITION.
Just Published,
Price 3 dollars, 3 vol. 12mo.
Sold by W. Young, Mills and Son, H. and P. Rice, M. Carey, R. Campbell and Co.
Laws of the United States,
From the commencement of the Federal Government to the end of the last Session of Congress, which terminated March 3, 1797.
THIS edition, published under an order of Congress of the United States, has many peculiar advantages. In the former one, each volume had a separate index, which rendered the reference in all cases, difficult and troublesome, and in many almost impossible. The indexes were, moreover, very injudiciously compiled. On the contrary, in the present edition, there is one copious, luminous index, compiled by Zephaniah Swift, Esq. referring to all the volumes, and comprising in itself a complete digest of all the laws of the United States.

Philadelphia, May 16, 1797.

Veneral Complaints,
PUNCTUALLY attended to in every stage of that disease, without the use of mercury or restraint of diet, in any case recent and simple, on application at No. 113, Chestnut-Street, opposite the United States bank, or at No. 170, South Water-Street, between Spruce and Pine-alleys, where he has opened an office for the better accommodation of his patients.
But in Lues Veneras confirmed, Doctor Morgan pledges himself, that no system of cure (however specious) can be effectual without mercury, and that all the known rules of practice for these two centuries past, and united experience affirms, that any substitute for it is but nugatory, and any mode of practice to the contrary must be futile and deceptive.
N. B. Regular attendance at the office in Water-Street, from the hour of nine o'clock in the morning until one, and from three o'clock in the evening until seven; but any other time at his dwelling house, in Chestnut-Street.
