the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plensipotentiary of his Britannic Majedly, General Agent for alisting Britist creditors, and such particular agents as they may specially authorize, in prosecuting their claims before the commissioners for carrying into effect the fixth article of the Treaty of Amily, Commerce and Nazigation between his Britannic Majesty and the United States of America, hereby gives notice that he has opened his office at his house the fouth east corner of Chesnut and fisth streets, Philadelphia, where he is ready to receive all claims of instructions for claims with the voachers and documents thereof, for the purpose of bringing forward the same agreeably so the rules and orders which the board may think proper to prescribe.

And as it will be for the interest of all concerned, that the sevenal classics be so stated, and support the necessity of obtaining further information, or add ditional materials, from persons residing at a distance, the general agent thinks it his duty to add, (for the direction chiesty of those, who, not having employed partices ar agents, may leave the prosecution of their claims to his charge and management) that all such claims ought in particular to set forth—

1st. The proper description and situation of the creditor or claimant, and original contract or

d. When, in what manner, and to what extent ad. When, in what manner, such that he creditor or claimant was prevented or impeded, by the provision, operation or defect of law, the lecisions and practice of courts, or rettraint of execution, from recovering payment of the debt in

4th. The loss and damage incurred or fustained, in confequence of such impediments, whether the same may have arisen from the insolveney, change of situation, or death of the debtor, the loss of legal remedy from lapse of time, or othercauses impairing the value and security of the debt, which would not have so operated if such impediments had not existed.

And 5th. The particular grounds and reasons on which the claimant maintains, in the terms of the treaty, that "by the ordinary course of judicial proings, the creditor cannot now obtain and actually have and receive sull and adequate compensation" for the losses and damages so sufficiently for the losses and damages fo sustained.

The general agent thinks it his duty further to suggest that the several claims ought to be accompanied and supported by the affidavits of the claimants duly shown and regularly attested, both as to the existence of the debts claimed, and such other circumstances as may be within their own knowledge respectively. And wherever the claimants in stating the nature of their evidence (which must in every instance be the best of which the case is capable) have occasion to refer to the testimony of witaesses, it will be proper to apprise the general agent of the names and places of residence of such witnesses and the facts to be established by their testimony.
