History of Pennsylvania, IN North-America, from the original institution and settlement of that province, under the first proprietor and governor, WILLIAM PENN. in 1681, till after the year 1742; with AN INTRODUCTION.
Respecting the Life of W. PENN.
Prior to the grant of that Province, and the religious Society of the people called Quakers; with the FIRST RISE of the NEIGHBORING COLONIES, more particularly of WEST-NEW-JERSEY, and the Settlement of the DUTCH and SWEDS on DELA-WARE.
To which is added,
A BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SAID PRO-VINCE
And of the general state, in which it flourished, principally between the years 1760 and 1770. The whole including a variety of things, useful and interesting to be known, respecting that country in early times, &c. With an appendix.
Written principally between the years 1776 and 1780, By REBECK PROUD.

hanc admodum est, vel pace vel bello clarum fieri licet."

"Sedem plerique arbitrentur res bellicas majores esse quam urbanas, minimeque hoc opinio."
—Cic. Off.
(Entered according to law.)
"WILLIAM PENN., the great legislator of the Quakers, (in Pennsylvania) had the success of a conqueror, in establishing and defending his colony, as among savage tribes, without ever drawing the sword; the goodness of the most benevolent rulers, in treating his subjects as his own children; and the tenderness of a universal father, who opened his arms to all mankind without distinction of sex or party. In his Republic it was not his religious creed, but personal merit, that entitled every member of society to the protection and emolument of the State." Essay on Toleration, by Arthur O'Leary.

HAVE just received by the late arrivals from London and Dublin, their spring importation, beg leave to notice, that from the nature of their connections in Dublin, they are enabled to sell Irish editions (as they have hitherto done) at the very lowest prices. The following are among the latest Jay's Instructions.

On MONDAY last, was published, By SNOWDEN & MCKORMLE,
No. 47, North Fourth Street, And to be had of the principal BOOKSELLERS,
No. V.
Of the History of the United States for 1796, &c.
This and the preceding number present the public with a copy of JAY'S INSTRUCTIONS, a performance anxiously concealed by the Executive from the House of Representatives, and the contents of which have excited the most ardent curiosity.
This number likewise contains some singular and authentic papers relative to Mr. Alexander Hamilton, late Secretary of the Treasury. No greater proof can be given of the value which he has attached to their suppression, than the following anecdote.
"During the late canvass for the election of a President, Webster, in his Minerva, gave a hint, that Mr. Hamilton would be an advisable candidate. A person in this city, who chanced to see this newspaper, wrote immediately to a correspondent in New-York. The latter desired him to put himself in Mr. Hamilton's way, and inform him, that if Webster should, in future, print a single paragraph on that head, the papers referred to were instantly to be laid before the world.
The message was delivered to Mr. Hamilton, and the "Minerva became silent!"

STAGES.
THE public are requested to take notice, that the partnership which has for some time subsisted between Mathias Slough of Lancaster, and William Geer, is now dissolved; but, as M.
Slough intimates to the public without just cause, as will more fully appear by a letter on the subject from Mr. Slough to W. Geer, dated the 29th December last, a recital of which is not now deemed necessary. Any gentleman who wishes to be more circumstantially informed of the merits of this business, by applying to W. Geer may have the perusal of M. Slough's letter, and then can be at full liberty to determine whether or not W.
Geer is not perfectly justifiable in attaching himself to any other person in the prosecution of the Stage conveyance from Philadelphia to Shippensburg, or any other place.
Now from the liberal and generous support the public were pleased to confer on the first effort in this business, William Geer, in conjunction with Messrs. Reily, Weed and Witmer, is determined to prosecute and carry it on, with every care, atnext, at the Merchants Coffee-House in this city, unless previously disposed of by private sale.

confluence of Frederica and Turtle rivers, adjoining the commons of the town of Brunswick, originally granted to John Howell, and within which are also intersected by a branch of the

It appears by authentic certificates from Thomas Davis, surveyor, and from Major Hopkins now residing in Philadelphia, that the body of these lands are not thirty miles from the ocean, and principally within tide water; that the Altamaha is navigable for boats and rafts two hundred miles above, and for large vessels within ten miles of them; that they are chiefly first rate pine lands, producing timber equal in quality to any in the State of Georgia, possessing the same advantages of navigation.
The above mentioned certificates, together with the patents, drafts, and other papers respecting the title, which is complete and unincumbered, are in the possession of the subscribers and may be seen by applying to Benjamin R. Morgan, at No. 41 Mulberry Street. The terms of payment will be one third cash, the remaining two thirds in good negotiable endor's notes, payable in three and six months after the sale; a from him which becomes first due.
