Town Lots.

A TOWN named BEULA, one mile fquare, being laid out on the Blacklick Creek, Som-erfet County, Pennfylvania, Lots therein of 58 feet by 125 feet are now felling at TFN boLLARS each; their fituation in the town to be determined by ballot before the firft of Aogust, and deeds for the fame will be delivered by the fubieriber before the fame will be delivered by the fubieriber before the

MORGAN J. RHEES. No. 177, South Second-ftreet, Philadelphia

The purchafers of lots in BEULA have the following profpects of appreciating their property:
I. It is remote from any other town, and furfounded by great bodies of excellent land, capable of producing every kind of grain and vegetables, and is without doubt one of the belt grazing countries is the United States.
In point of health the fituation is not exceeded by any on the continent:
Befides numerous fprings and runs, of the finatefit quality, there is a creek for water works (on which mills are now building) running through the town,

4 The public road from Philadelphia to Pittf-4 The public road from Philadelphia to Pittl-hurgh will go through it, which being more level and nearer than any other rout, muft become uni-verfally travelled : aided by the navigation of Ju-niata and Conemaugh, goods may be conveyed at leaft 2 or 3 dollars per cwt, cheaper from the for-mer to the latter place, than by the old road thro' Bedford.

 Feing in the centre of a flourifhing fettlement, and taking in the fhorteft portage between the caftern and weftern waters, it is likely to become a deposit for flores, a manufacturing town, and a feat of julice. Befides the old fettlers, up wards of one hundred emigrants have fettled in the vicinity of Beula, fince laß October, and many more have engaged to join them this fummer.
 A Land-Office for fupplying actual fettlers with farms to a confiderable amout, t, and in various fituations, will be immediately opened in the town. The proprietors of land in the circumpatent country are felicited to fend their drafts and tarms of fale, or leading, to THOMAS JONES, Surveyor, in Beula, who will give fecurity for any truft repofed in him with fuch co-operating aid, the progrefs of the fettlement will be the more rapidly advanced and extended to diftant townfhips.
 A public library for the benefit of the fettlers, will be effablished in the town, towards laying the foundation of which, upwards of one thourand volumes are already purchafed and principally feat forward.
