The Norfolk Mail STAGE.

THIS Stage ftarts from the GEORGE Tavern, at the corner of Second and Arch Streets, in Philadelphia, every Tusfday, Thurfday, and Saturday, at 3 o'clock, in the norning; arrives at Dover the first day, at Snowhill the second day, at Northampton Court House the third day, and on the morning of the sourch day the passengers find a safe and comfortable packet to convey them to Norsolk.

A packet leaves Norfolk for Northampton ferry, every Tuefday, Thursday and Saturday, and the Stage starts from this serry for Philadelphia, every Monsay, Wednesday and Friday puts up at Snow Hill the first night, at Dover the 2d night, and arrives in Philadelphia in the evening of the third day.

The diffance on this route, between Philadelphia and Norfolk, is so miles lefs than on any stage route between those places.

Too much cannot be faid in favor of the road, which is most excellent indeed. The proprietors willingly engage to return the whole fare to any passenger, who, after having performed this route, will say that he ever travelled in a stage for the same distance, so good a road in america.

PREVENTION AND CURE OF THE TELLOW FEFER.

VER fince this dieale this to the ravages in this city and New-York, the author has rurned his strention to its causes and cure.—The result of hanquiries has con vinced him that the reason why s enquiries has cot vinced him that the reason why so sew persons recover from its attacks, are from its not being well understood, and the consequent wrong method taken to cure it. He is persuaded that the excessive bleedigns and mercurist reatment of the Faculty is highly injurious, and that the only rational mode of treatment is by theuse of proper acids. Convinced of this he offers his specific as a certain remedy, if used according to the directions.

To Masters and Pilots bringing up Vessels from Foreign Ports to this City.

Whereas funds y intringements have lately been made on the laws of this state for the proventing pestilential or insectious diseases, either from ignorance or inattention thereto, it is those expedient at this time to publish the following extracts from the laws of 22d April, 1794, 7th and 8th sections:

HEALTH-OFFICE.

June 6th, 1794.

Extract of an act for securing the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases.

SECT. 7. And of Philadelphia from the intruduction of petilential and contagious difeafes.

SECT. 7. And he is further enacted, that every mafter or captain of any ship or vessel coming from sea (vessels actually employed as the consing grade excepted) and bound to any port or place within the jurisdiction of Pennfylvania, shall cause his ship or vessel to be brought to anchor, or otherwise slayed in the stream of the river Delaware, opposite to the Health-Office on State-Island aforesaid, and there to remain until he shall have duly obtained a certificate or bill of health from the Resident Physician. And it, previously to obtaining such certificate or bill of health, any master or captain shall suffer his ship or vessel to approach nearer than the faid Health-Office to the city of Philadelphia, or shall land, cause or suffer to be landed, or brought on shore, at any place or port within this Commonwealth, or at any other port or place, with the intest of being conveyed into this Commonwealth, any person or persons, or any goods, wares or merchandize, or, if after receiving such bill of health or tertificate, he shall negle of results to deliver the same to the Health-Officer, such master or captain shall sorted and pry, for each and every such officer, the sum or rive numbered notilized.

And the captain or master of every ship or vessel shall send a state and commodious boat to bring the physician on board, and shall in like manner convey him back to the Health-Office, after he has concluded his official examination; And while he is making such examination by the Health Officer or Constulting Physician, agreeably to the directions of this act, the master or captain shall expose or cause to be exposed to the search of the Resident Physician, or of the Health Officer and Consulting Physician, or of the Health Officer and Consulting Physician, agreeably to the directions of this act, the master or captain shall ask relative to the health of any port or place from which the ship or vessel said, or has since any of the office forfeit and pay the fum of FIVE HUNDRED DOL-

SECT. 8. And if any verion or perions whatfo-ever (the Refident Physician, &c, excepted) shall go on board any vessel, before the master thereof has received a certificate of health in the manner directed, every perion so offending, shall pay the um of one hundred dollars.

IT being absolutely necessary that the foregoing sections should be punctually complied with, the subscriber, in compliance with his duty, must exact a rigorous observance of the same, or else be under the necessity of putting the laws in force.

Wm. ALLEN, Health Officer of the Port of Philadelphia.
