Observations on certain Documents Contained in No. V and VI of "The History of the United States for the year 1796,"

In which the CHARGE OF SPECULATION against ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Late SECRETARY of the TREASUR, is FULLY REFUTED.

WRITTEN BY HIMSELE. This publication presents a concife statement of the base means practifed by the Jacobins of the United States to asperse the characters of those persons who are considered as hostile to their diforranizing schemes. It also contains the cor-espondence between Mr. Hamilton and Messrs. Monroe, Muhlenburgh and Venable, on the sub-est of the documents asoresaid, and a series of letject of the documents alorefaid, and a feries of letters from James Reynolds and his wife to Mr. Hamilton, proving beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the connection between him and Reynolds, was the result of a daring conspiracy on the part of the latter and his associates to extort money.

A discount of one third from the retail price will be made in favor of wholesale purchasers, for eash. Orders to be addressed to Mr. Young.

The Norfolk Mail STAGE.

THIS Stage ftarts from the GEORGE Tavern, at the corner of Second and Arch Streets, in Philadelphia, every Tuefday, Thurfday, and Saturday, at 3 o'clock, in the trorning; arrives at Dover the first day, at Snowhill the second day, at Northampton Court House the third day, and on the morning of the sourch day the passengers find a safe and comfortable packet to convey them to Norfolk.

A packet leaves Norfolk for Northampton ferry, A packet leaves Norfolk for Northampton ferry, every Tuefday, Thursday and Saturday, and the Stage starts from this serry for Philadelphia, every Moneay, Wednesday and Priday sputs up at Snow Hill the first night, at Dover the 2d night, and arrives in Philadelphia in the evening of the third day.

The distance on this route, between Philadelphia and Norfolk, is so miles less than on any stage route between those places.

Too much cannot be said in favor of the road, which is most excellent indeed. The proprietors willingly engage to return the whole fare to any passenger, who, after having performed this route, will say that he ever travelled in a stage for the same distance so good a road in a merrica. diftance, fo good a road in America.

Letters and Conversations,
Between several Young Ladies, on improving and interesting subjects.

Translated from the Dutch of Mademe de Camben with alterations and improvements,
Printed on fine paper, and neatly bound,
Price one dollar.

AMIDST the tide of modern Romances, painting tales of extraordinary differs, or of desperate or artful villainy, which "harrow up the foul," and which it would be for the honor of young ladies to be ignorant of, this little book comes forward to folicit notice, where, in a variety of incidents, not exceeding the bounds of real life, the proper, because elegant and natural dignity and importance of the Fondle character is exhibited in an interesting point of view, and presents examples of real and attainable excellence.

The publisher was so much pleased with the personal, that he was persuaded he should do a pleasing service to the community by sending it in a circulation.
