In which the CHARGE OF SPECULATION against ALEXANDER HAMILTON,
Late Secretary of the Treasur, is FULLY REFUTED.

This publication prefents a concife statement of the base means practifed by the Jacobins of the United States to asperse the characters of those parsons who are considered as hostile to their diforganizing schemes. It also contains the correspondence between Mr. Hamilton and Mess. Monroe, Muhlenburgh and Venable, on the subject of the documents aforesaid, and a series of letters from James Reynolds and his wife to Mr. Hamilton, proving beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the connection between him and Reynolds, was the result of a daring conspiracy on the part
