Observations on certain Documents Contained in No. V and VI of "The History of the United States for the year 1796,"

In which the charge of speculation against ALEXANDER HAMILTON, Late Secretary of the Treasur, is FULLY REFUTED.

WRITTEN BY HIMSELF. This publication prefents a concile statement of the bale means practifed by the Jacobins of the United States to asperse the characters of those persons who are considered as hostile to their disorganizing schemes. It also contains the correspondence between Mr. Hamilton and Messis, Monroe, Muhlenburgh and Venable, on the subject of the documents aloresaid, and a series of letters from James Reynolds and his wife to Mr. Hamilton, proving beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the connection between him and Reynolds, was the result of a daring conspiracy on the part of the latter and his associates to extort money.

A discount of one third from the retail price will be made in favor of wholefale purchasers, for eash. Orders to be addressed to Mr. Young.

AMIDST the tide of modern Romances, painting tales of extraordinary diffres, or of desperate or artful villainly, which "harrow up the foul," and which it would be for the honor of young ladies to be ignorant of, this little book comes forward to folicit notice, where, in a variety of incidents, not exceeding the bounds of real life, the proper, because elegant and natural dignity and importance of the Female character is exhibited in an interesting point of view, and presents examples of real and attainable excellence.

The publisher was so much pleased with the peru-fal, that he was persuaded he should do a pleasing fervice to the community by fending it in o circu-lation.
