NEW-YORK, October 14. RECEPTION OF THE PRESIDENT.

The following arrangements, we are informed, are made for the reception of the President of the United States, who is expected in town on Monday next:

Brigadier General Hughes, with two troops of horse, the officers of the brigade, and citizens on horseback and in carriages, will leave Hunter's hotel at half past nine o'clock, and proceed to the bridge at Harlem, where they will receive the President on his first arrival in the county, and will escort him to the city.

The grenadiers and infantry of the brigade under the command of Colonel Morton will be stationed at the suburbs, near the Bull's Head inn; and on the arrival of the President the troops will wheel by platoons, and the procession will move down Broadway and Wall-street to Broad-street. On the arrival of the troops at the head of Broad-street, the line will be formed from the head of that street to Mr. Avery's, (the President's intended place of residence) and the President will pass the line and receive the usual military honors. The troops will again wheel by platoons, and perform the marching salute.

On the arrival of the President at the suburbs of the city, Captain Ten Eyck will fire a federal salute from the Battery, which will be returned from the fort on Governor's Island. The shipping in the harbour will, we presume, pay the accustomed compliments on the occasion.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENTS.

Last Tuesday night, on board of a vessel coming down the Hudson, one McDonald and one ... fell into a dispute, in which McDonald clinched the other to heave him overboard; and being both locked, they went over together, the vessel going five knots. The boat was instantly got out, and the men taken up—McDonald was re-animated, but the other died. On this dead body, we understand, a jury of inquest sat on Wednesday, and adjudged, that he died through the instrumentality of McDonald, who was soon after committed.

A poor woman fell down a flight of stairs, she was not aware of, and broke her neck, in Water-street, on Wednesday. Last Friday a man was found dead in Harlem woods.

BOSTON, Oct. 11.

The French Executive Directory has severely condemned the "deliberative" addresses &c. of the armies.

The recel of Victor Hugues, the prince of pirates, is confirmed by letters from Guadaloupe.

From CHARLESTON, Sept. 19. Captain Findley, from Petit-Trou, informs, that the diffensions which had prevailed for some time past between the directory at the Cape and Gen. Rigaud are settled; in consequence of which the Island is in a much more peaceable state than it was before. He says the inhabitants of the Island, generally, speak in the highest terms of disapprobation of the commissioning armed boats and small privateers to capture American vessels; they say it is a disgrace to the republic, and their earnest wishes are that a stop may be put to it.

LITERARY BENEVOLENCE.

The author of the "American Spectator," at the time this pleasing and useful work was published, announced his intention to appropriate the whole of the profits arising from its sale, to charitable uses. So well has this work been received by the public, that we are happy to learn, that in conformity with the author's benevolent design, SEVENTY FIVE DOLLARS of the profits already arisen from the work, have been transmitted, by Mr. David West, to the sufferers by the late fire in Savannah; and FIFTY DOLLARS to the Convention of Congregational Ministers of this Commonwealth, to be distributed by them among the indigent widows of deceased ministers. For the latter handsome and well applied donation, the author received the following vote of thanks, viz:

"The author of the American Spectator having through the hands of Mr. David West, his bookseller, presented to the Convention, FIFTY DOLLARS, to be by them distributed, with the other monies contributed for the same purposes, among the indigent widows of deceased ministers; whereupon Voted, That the thanks of this Convention be presented to the benevolent donor, through Mr. David West, for his generous donation."

Attest, JED. MORSE, Scribe of the Convention.

A work so valuable and entertaining in itself, and doubly useful in its fruits, cannot fail of receiving the generous patronage of the judicious, humane and benevolent part of the community.

PORTSMOUTH, (N. H.) Oct. 7.

We are authorized by a correspondent to say, "That a few days previous to the embarkation of Santhoxax from St. Domingo, a number of Americans, merchants and captains, signed a flattering address to him of thanks for his particular and kind attention to the Americans in general, for the benefit they had derived from a man of his superior [devil-like] abilities.—This rascally petition was signed by twenty self-acknowledged Americans, who by this act the greater part may be called self-acknowledged villains, and as such esteemed by the few remaining honest Americans. The address was written in French and presented to the Americans to sign, by Mr. Wilson, (Barney's agent) supposed to be proposed by Santhoxax.

We learn, that Santhoxax carried with him from St. Domingo, five millions sterling, in cash.

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 16.

Total of burials for 24 hours, ending Saturday at noon.

Table with columns: St. Peter's, Third Presbyterian, Friends, German Lutheran, Universalists, Potter's Field, City Hospital. Rows: Grown Persons, Children.

From the city. The number of deaths on the 14th of October 1793, was 81.

Total number of Interments during the last 48 hours, 23.

Died, on Saturday last, Dr. SAMUEL PLEASANTS, jun. son of Mr. Samuel Pleasants, merchant, of this city. He had but a few months since returned from Europe, whither he had gone to complete his studies. Dr. Pleasants was one of the five physicians composing the visiting committee; and is the third who has fallen a victim to his own benevolence and public spirit.

Grim monarch! see, deprived of vital breath, A young Physician in the dust of death: Do thou go on incessant to destroy, Our griefs to double, and lay waste our joy? Enough thou never yet wast known to say, Thou'rt hundreds' die the vassals of thy sway; Nor youth, nor science, nor the ties of love, Nor aught on earth thy filial heart can move. Clod's are his eyes, and heavy fetters keep His senses bound in never-waking sleep. Till time shall cease, till many a flaring world Shall fall from heav'n, in dire confusion hurld; Till nature in her final wreck shall lie, And her last groan shall rend the azure sky: Nor, not till then his slave's soul shall claim His body, a device immortal frame. Oh! Friend, create thy tears, bid every sigh depart, And cast the load of anguish from thine heart: To Heaven. There fix thy view where fiercer than the wind, Thy PLEASANTS mounts, and leaves the earth behind. Thyself prepare to pass the vale of night, To join forever on the hill of light: He welcomes thee to pleasures more refin'd, And better suited to thy immortal mind. DIED, on Saturday evening last, Dr. E. CLEMERT, Druggist, corner of Lodge alley and Second free.

ELECTION.

Philadelphia city and county return. County Commissioner.

Table with columns: City, County, Total. Rows: Jacob Souder, Jacob Kehme, York County Election.

SENATOR. John Stewart.

ASSEMBLY. Thomas Campbell, Philip Gartner, Alexander Turner, Wm. McPherson, Jacob Hochsteter, James Kelly.

Lancaster Election. Jeremiah Brown, Richard Keys, Abram Carpenter, Alexander Scott, Jacob Stricker, John Hopkins.

The divisions in Montgomery county, have unfortunately aided the shameful intrigues of the Jacobin faction in introducing two democratic candidates in the state legislature. But it was not, as ignorantly and impudently asserted in the Aurora, a contest between order and disorganization. The decided federalism of Montgomery county could not be more clearly evinced than by the infamous and underhanded intrigues carried on there by the faction: Too weak to shew themselves openly, they fought to perpetrate their designs by most pitiful, dirty and dark manoeuvres. The election has resulted in the choice of two of their creatures; and this is owing rather to the divisions amongst the federalists, than to any efforts of the faction.

Mr. Bellev, absurdly counted upon as a Jacobin, we are confidently assured, is a firm federalist.

The election of Mr. McClellan into the Senate, is stated in the Aurora of this morning, to be a triumph of Jacobinism. We are happy to assure the public, that this idea is totally false and groundless;—Mr. McClellan is not only a man "whose weight will be thrown into the republican scale," but also a decided Federalist.

The business of the CUSTOM-HOUSE, will from this day be transacted at CHESTNUT for some time. Sept. 30.

GAZETTE MARINE LIST.

Capt. Quandrill, of brig Mary, arrived here on Friday from Guernsey, was chased in the English channel by a privateer for 12 hours. Capt. Quandrill sprung his foremast with the weight of sail he carried to escape the pirates—the Frenchmen finding they could not come up with her, gave over the pursuit, thus by superior sailing was a valuable cargo preserved from falling into the hands of the republicans.

New-York, Oct. 14.

ARRIVED. Brig Brana, Leghorn, 3 months. Ich'r Sally, Hemley, Halifax. From the log-book of the ship Edinburgh Packet, captain Farquerton, 63 days from Leith.

BOSTON, OCT. 11.

Fraternity.—Capt. Dunbar, from St. Croix, in lat. 23, N. long. 65, 35, W. was boarded by a French privateer brig from Guadaloupe, the capt. of which, with five of his crew, came on board and demanded Capt. D's papers; after examination, ordered his effects and trunks to be opened—took from them all the money and letters—took all the stock cabin stores, spare rigging, sails and blocks—one cask of rum, &c.—suffered his people to steal even knives and forks, spoons, tumblers, and every article remaining in the cabin. The privateer captain put on board two seamen taken from the brig Favourite, Scillon, of Baltimore, and Mr. Taylor, supercargo, with a cargo of 50,000 dollars. He also wished to get rid of Capt. Scillon and Mr. Taylor, but they insisted on staying aboard the privateer and know the state of their property, which spirited behaviour produced a conduct unworthy a man, for on their refusal to quit the privateer, the capt. rudely flogged them! Several other American masters and seamen were on board this privateer, among them was Mr. John Barnes, of Marblehead. Before the privateer left us, she took a sloop from Rhode-Island, capt. Briggs, bound to Cape-Francois. The captain of the privateer to finish his brutal behaviour, threatened to punish capt. Dunbar—dismissed him with a curfew in his country, and a determination to rob every American vessel that could not be made a prize of. Capt. Moulton, arrived at Beverly, from Gonaves, where he was carried in by a small French cruiser, and detained 4 days; but by paying a sum of money was permitted to depart. Capt. M. has been boarded by several other French cruizers, and plundered of merchandise, provisions and money. He has also been boarded by two British men of war, and by them treated politely.

The above instance of unbearable insult, (the published before in this Gazette) appeared too proper a concomitant to that flatted under the Portsmouth head, not to be handed to the public along with it. SALEM, (Mass.) October 10. From Brig Three Friends, Endicott, Surinam Schr. Sally, Baker, Bilboa Sloop Francis & Mary, Collins, Liverpool Arrived, schr. Sally, 51 days from St. Ubes. Capt. M. has been boarded by several other French cruizers, and plundered of several articles of merchandise and provisions, and some money; he has also been boarded by two British men of war, and by them treated politely. He spoke off Cape Nichola Mole, the brig Betty of Boston, from Norfolk, and the brig Rosanna, Archer, of Salem, both bound to Jamaica. Same day, spoke ship Dolphin from Providence. 26th, spoke brig General Warren, lat. 39, 30, long. 67, 20, from Bolton for St. Bartholomews.

Portsmouth, (N. H.) October 7.

Arrived here the brig Brothers, capt. Kennard, in 23 days from Grenada, who has handed us the following publication: Capt. Kennard, of the brig Brothers, on his passage from Grenada to Portsmouth, N. H. in lat. 19, 29, N. and long. 63, 30, W. September 13th, was boarded by a small privateer schooner, of one carriage gun, 30 men, 6 whites, the rest coloured; under English colours; but afterwards hoisted French. They immediately carried capt. Kennard, with two of his people, on board the schooner, there the capt. of the pirates, (for he can call them no better) ordered two negroes to strip capt. K. which they did even to his shirt, while the rest stood with naked swords at his breast if he offered to make the least resistance. They robbed him of his pocket-book, containing bills of exchange to the amount of 1350l. and several other papers of considerable value, took his watch from his pocket, but that they returned with great reluctance, abusing him to the last degree, telling him that they would let fire to his brig if he did not tell where his money was. While that was doing, about 8 or 10 of the pirates fell to ransacking the brig; they plundered every necessary article they could put their hands on, took from the cabin 3 or 4 dozen of wine and porter, 1 cask spirits, about 12lb. sugar, and some coffee, which was all capt. K. had, the mate begging them to be honourable enough to leave part, but to no purpose; they also took some crockery ware, one cask razors, one pair dividers, the captain's quadrant, which he set great store by, the mate's daily assistant, and sundry other articles, striking the mate on the breast, and pointing their swords at him if he offered to resist. They likewise took out of the brig one bbl. beef, 1 do. bread, 2 casks water, 2 coils rope, 1 coil ratline, 1 bundle points, 1 hammer, 1 plain, 1 hand pump, gimblets, nails of different kinds, several blocks, several hooks and thimbles, 1 royal, 1 steering-fail boom, balls of spun-yarn, lamp-black, fire-wood, &c. &c. They robbed capt. Kennard's people of some sea-farers and clothes; such piratical proceeding their villains were guilty of.

By this time it growing dark they ordered the remaining crew on board the brig to assist them in hoisting out the long-boat, threatening them with instant death if they offered to refuse. They unbuttoned the brig's main top-mast stay-sail, and put it in the boat, together with all their plunder; at 8 o'clock in the evening they gave Capt. Kennard his two people, and they came on board his vessel in a distressing situation.

The last compliment from them was "DAMN your PRESIDENT, CONGRESS, and ALL AMERICA, for making a Treaty with Great Britain."

Capt. K. hoisted in his boat with a deal of trouble, and proceeded on his passage to lament his cruel usage.

NATH'L KENNARD, master, HERM COFFIN, mate, WM. COLE, seaman, Attested.

PEALE'S MUSEUM.

THIS valuable repository of the works of Nature, so well calculated to delight the mind and enlarge the understanding, is opened daily, as usual. It stands in an airy and healthy situation, and free from the epidemic that at present afflicts the city; it may, therefore, be frequented with the greatest safety.

As an Amusement, the study of Nature is the most rational and pleasing; as a Science, the most sublime and instructive. It elevates the mind and expands the heart. They "Whom Nature's works can charm, with God himself hold converse."

Many interesting additions have lately been made to this Museum: and the feathered tribe, containing a variety of the most rare and beautiful subjects, is now very advantageously arranged. Waxen Figures, of Men large as life (some of them cast from nature) are here dressed in their proper habits, and placed in attitudes characteristic of their respective nations. Here may be seen the North-American Savage, and the savage of South-America—a laboring Chinese, and the Chinese Gentleman—the foxy African, and the Kamthadale—with some Natives of the South Sea Islands. The immense variety and interesting diversity which this Museum offers to the view, may be seen but cannot be described with full effect. Price only 1-4th of a dollar. SEPT. 23. LAWY.

WAS taken (supposed to have been stolen) on Sunday evening last, from the house occupied by Mr. Blunt, No. 9, Strawberry-street.—It is a green silk Umbrella, of the middle size, with a red morocco top and hooked ivory head.—Conceiving it to have been taken by some pilfering knave, who, actuated by pecuniary motives, may endeavor to vend the same, any person or persons to whom the said Umbrella may be offered, are desired to stop it; and it is hoped, will apprehend and convict the thief to justice. The peculiarity of the Umbrella will, evidently, subject the possessor to detection; therefore, whoever apprehends the same and delivers it at Mr. Blunt's, from whence it was taken, or at Mr. Penno's office, shall be handsomely rewarded. ELOPED from the service of the subscriber, on the 19th instant, a negro man by the name of DICK, about twenty-five years of age, and five feet nine or ten inches high; by trade a carpenter, and is a very lively brisk workman. His countenance is very good—When spoken to, he converes with ease and confidence, and is pretty facetious. I purchased the said fellow of Mr. Duhney Minor, in whose name he has been advertised in the Richmond newspapers. During his last runaway trip (last summer) he was employed a considerable length of time, by some person near Dumfries, from which circumstance, I conjecture, he has taken another northern route. I forewarn all persons from giving him employment, of any kind whatever, and masters of vessels and others, from carrying him out of this State. The above reward will be given if he is taken within forty miles of this city; and an additional sum, in proportion to the distance he may be brought, or the trouble and expence the apprehender may be at, in bringing him to this place.

AUG. DAVIS, N. B. His apparel was of the usual negro kind, but he had more cloaths than is customary for them to possess.
