THEIR superiority consists in being free from koles and boney-combed places, subich are commonly found in rollers cast in sand, or clay moulds. These patent rollers are cast in ion moulds, premostly beated, and will be found to be more derse, solid and durable than any rollers beretofore used. Another important advantage they have over others, is, that the necks require no turning, but are immediately sit for use, and require less water to make them perform their work.
