Observations on certain Documents

Contained in No. V and VI of "The History of the United States for the year 1796,"

In which the CHARGE of SPECULATION against ALEXANDER HAMILTON, LANC SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, IS FULLY REFUTED.

WRITTEN BY HIMSELF.

This publication presents a concise statement of the safe means practised by the Jacobins of the United States to asperse the characters of those persons who are considered as hostile to their disorganizing schemes. It also contains the correspondence between Mr. Hamilton and Messrs. Monroe, Mühlenburgh and Venable, on the subject of the documents aforesaid, and a series of letters from James Reynolds and his wife to Mr. Hamilton, proving beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the connection between him and Reynolds, was the result of a daring conspiracy on the part of the latter and his associates to extort money.

A discount of one third from the retail price will be made in favor of wholesale purchasers, for cash. Orders to be addressed to Mr. Young.
