To the Inhabitants of the United States.

SINCE the knowledge of medicine, none has ev-or proved to altenifhingly efficacious, fo uni-virtally efficemed, or to which the afflicted with Rheumatilins, Gout, Rheumatic Gout, Lumbago, Palfy, Sprains, Bruifes and Chilblains, may look for relief with fo much confidence, as Whitehead's effence of Mustard. Whilehead's effence of Multand. This extraordinary Medicine very foon affords the wifhed for relief, "even to the aged in cales the molt deperate" For these fubfiantial reasons it is patronifed by all ranks of people in England. From the great number of communications con-flantly received by Mr. Jonistron, he is under the meefity (in laying them before the works) of a-bridging their contents; the following letters (al-through curtailed) are fovery important, and the figuraters to very respectable, that he conceives he fhould he doing injustice to Whitehead's Effence of Multard, were he to withhold them from public in-fpection.

Letter from Mrs. Wills, Housekeeper to the Duke of Cumberland.

Nov. 1, 1795. A molt inveterate Rheumatifm and Lumbago (occessioned by laying in a damp bed, when at Scaffels, in the fuit of Her Royal Highnefs the Dutchefs of Comberland) has afflicted me eighteen Dutch is of Cnmberland) Fas allotted me eighteen years. I have employed the first medical gentle-men in London, and (although I derived no bene-fit) an bound to acknowledge my gratitude to fe-veral of the nobility, who knew my deplorable fi-tuation, and humanely feat me their phylicians; I have alfo tried most advertifed medicines. At hive and the most advertice meditines. At length, fir, after eighteen years exeruciating torture, a few bottles of your Whitehead's Effence of Muffard, have, I thank God, reflored me to the meditimable bleffings of health and permanent cafe.
