Salisbury Estate.

Salibury Estate.

The subscriber, proposing to contrast his busines, offers this Estate for sale, on moderate terms. On it are one Blast and three Air Furnaces, a complete Boreing Machine, and a very good grist Mill, with two pair of these; also a good forge, all in perfect repsir, as are all the Water Works connected with these various branches. The Air Furnaces were lately built for the purpose of cashing Cannon for this State.—There are about two thouland screes of Land, one half of which is under wood, the other very sine arable Land, producing the best Hay and Passure. The Cannon lately manufactured there, fally proves the excellency of the metal, which is superior to any in this country, and probably, equal to any in the world; for not one of fixty-nine gans lately mide, although some of the 24 were bored into 32 pounders, have failed on proving. The suration is very eligible, particularly for this branch of manufacture, and a place of arms lying in the state of Connectivity, and only 30 miles from several landings on the Hudson's river, and having every advantage that can result from a plenty of water issuing from a large natural pond, very near the Furnace, and which may be converted into a variety of other useful purposes. The purchaser can be accommodated with all the stock and utensits, and have possession on or before the first of June next, and preparation may be made in the meantime for going into Blast imed with all the flock and utentits, and have poffedior on or before the first of June next, and preparation may be made in the meantime for going into Blaft in mediately thereafter, for every part will be delivered in good order, with some coal, Ore, &c. &c. Enterms, apply to Mr. Joseph Anthony, in Philadel phis; David Brooks, Eq. one of the Representative in Congress for this State; Mr, David Waterman, on the premises, or to the proprietor in New-York.

English Grammar,

The second edition, with improvements,
A DAP FED to the different classes of learners with an appendix, containing rules and obfervations for affitting the more advanced studies to write with perspicuity and accuracy,
By LINDLEY MURRAY.

"This is a publication of much merit, and fully answers the professions in the Title. The appendix contains some of the best rules for writing elegantly, and with propriety, that we recollect to have seen."

Monthly Review, July 1796.

This Grammar is, on many accounts entitled to commendatory netice, its materials have been carefully and judicionfly selected; its arrangement is diffined and well adapted to the purpose of in-firection and its expression is simple, perspicuous and accurate, Rec."

See the character at large in the Analytical Review, July 1796.

English Exercises,

Adapted to the Grammar lately published by Lindley Murray, confishing of exemplification of the parts of speech, instances of falls orthography, violations of the rules of syncax, defects in punctuation, and violations of the rules respecting perspicuity and accuracy, designed for the benefit of private learners; as well as for theuse of schools.

"We have been much pleased with the perusal of these Exercises. They occupy with distinguished excellence a most important place in the science of the English language; and as such, we can warmly recommend them to the Teachers of Schools, as well as to all those who are desirous of attaining correctness and precision in their native tongue."

Monthly Review, July 1797.
