"The Hiftory of the United States for the year 1796,"

In which the CHARGE OF SPECULATION against
ALEXANDER HAMILTON,
Late SECRETARY of the TREASURY, is EULLY
REFUTED.

This publication prefents a concife flatement of the base means practifed by the Jacobins of the United States to asperfe the characters of those persons who are considered as hostile to their disorganizing schemes. It also contains the correspondence between Mr. Hamilton and Mess. Monroe, Muhlenburgh and Venable, on the subject of the documents aloresaid, and a ferics of letters from James Reynolds and his wife to Mr. Hamilton, proving beyond the possibility of a doubt, that the connection between him and Reynolds, was the result of a daring conspiracy on the part of the latter and his associates to extort money.
