The Government provision contracts hav-ing been all renewed, the flaughtering fea-fon is opened here, at a rate without comparfe; cows of four hundred weight bring ing the enormous price of 34 fhillings in the hundred, and all other denominations in proportion !!!

On Tuesday 23,000 cannon balls, of 18 pounders, were sent to the fortified posts of the fouthern fituations of this kingdom, with a number of bomb-fhelis. The cannon had been previoufly fent, befides a large quantity of the beft gun-powder. Tuefday Mr. Robinfon, of Capel-ftreet cutler, and an apprentice of his named Col-lier, were apprehended and lodged in confinement, on a charge of attending illegal meetings, and administering treasonable oaths.

More families have left this country within the last three months than have been re-membered within the fame periods. The packets to Holyhead, Parkgate and Liverpool, have never had fo many paffengers. The flate of the country had induced many timid perfors to prefer the fifter kingdom.— The lofs of fuch characters would not in itfelf be a matter of much moment; but as every thing which tends to diminish the employ of the working community is a matter of ferious concern, and as the confumption of manufactures is likely to be affected in a confiderable degree, it is much to be regret-

At the conclusion of this, three of the Books were taken out of the Ark one of which was taken out of the Ark, one of which was taken out of the Ark, one of which was given to the principal Reader, who afcend-ed the Altar, fupported by a Reader on each fide, with books in their arms, finging a Hymu in compliment to the Royal Family, to the tune of "God fave the King," accompanied by a band of malic. you have punished (Dumolard), uttered, in his tribune, a propolition tending to engen der trouble and difquiet in our armies, when, on the fubject of the mailacres committed on the French fick at Verona, and feveral other eities of Italy, he infinunted that the di-rectory or general in chief had gone beyond their powers in taking exemplary vengeance of the Ventian government. Such conduct, faid he, is contrary to the law of na-tions, and enleulated to diminifh the dignitions, and chicolated to diminin the digni-ty of the French people. He concluded with obtaining the appointment of a Ipecial. committee to make a report on this fulject "The 528th article of the conditution flates, that "in the cafe of holdilities impending or already commenced; menaces or preparations of war, against the French re-public, the executive directory ought to employ, in defence of the flate, the means placed at its difpofal to fecure the public tranquility, provided that due information be communicated to the legiflative body." "But it is fufficient to read the manifefto of general Buonaparte, to be convinced that the directory was justifiable in its conduct towards' Venice.

" The partizans of despotifm employed themfelves in calumniating the French, in treating them as jacobins, terrorifts and regicides ; they irritated the people against the French government ; and the Veneuians were in confequence, feen to affaffinate our generous foldiers, to poignard them publicly, and heard to ring, a fecond time, the Sicilian vespers for the defiruction of our armies. They united cowardice to ferocity, and availed themfelves, in their attack, of the moment when it was reported that the French fied before the Archduke.

"Buonarparte foon after repelled the ag-greffion, and triumphed. His enemies became fupplaints; a negociation was entered on, and furely the right of war permits to impofe laws on the vanquished. With re-gard to Genoa, the multiplied acts which have embroiled it in war with us, have been already published. Genoa, oftener than once, dilplayed its favour for England; and one of our frigates was affaulted by the Ge-one of our ingates was analited by the Ge-noefe in their very ports. "But, befides, does it become us to re-proach nations with flaking off their chains? On this principle we flould accufe the French for having annihilated the throne on the 10th of August. Did not the numerous victories which have fignalized the war of libertes which have ignalized the war of liber-ty, hold forth grand examples to more than one people ? And was not the admiration excited by the exploits of French republi-cans, capable frouting more than one neigh-boring nation to initate us ?

"The chief ruin of Venice was its despo-tic ariftocracy, its crooked policy, its secret ambition, and punic faith. It is not, there-fore, the conduct alone of Venice with refpeet to us, but also the radical vice of its Oligarchic government, which operated the destruction of that State. Nor are there, probably, any but the most infamoully perfidious, who would confider the French go-vernment as criminal in having repelled vio-lence by force, and in having punished af-

"The excelles of demagogues have been every where reprefied in Italy by the French government : every where the liberty of worthip has been refpected ; but were the directory to neglect the means of fecuring to the republic the fruits of her victories ? "Let us always act in fuch a manner that other governments may dread to go to war with us, and wifh to preferve peace.
