J. L. LENZ,

Teacher of Vocal and infirumental Music,

RETURNS his sincere thanks to the Ladies and Gentlemen, from whom he received a very liberal encouragement since his residence in this city, and respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that, in consequence of the request of some of his friends, he has opened a Musical School at his house in Sprace Street No 174, where he will teach on the Piano forte, Violin &c. &c.— He deems it unnecessary to enlarge upon the ad vantages the learner will derive from an infinuti on of this kind; he will only say, that attention and zeal are much excited in an affembly, where numbers are in pursuit of the same object. His arrangement is such, that an interference of the the different sexes will be avoided. Those Ladies and Gentlemen who cannot make it convenient to attend at his school, he will wait upon at their houses.—Applications will be thankfully received at his house, where his terms and surther particulars may be known.
