Insurance Company of North America.
For Insurance against Fire, on Dwelling-Houses. Ware-Houses, and other Buildings (and on Goods convained in such Buildings) distant from Philadelphia, in the United States.

Philadelphia, in the United States.

1. Common Infurances, on hazards of the first class, will be undertaken at a premium of amout halt per cent. per annum. For extra hazardous risques a larger premium will be required, which will vary recording to circumstances, sedam exceeding one per cent. per annum; but in some inflances, where the property insured is not only in itself extra hazardous, but rendered still more so by the vicinity of extra hazardous buildings and occupations, the premium demanded will be raised according to circumstances.

Houses and Ware-Houses, the walls and pertitions of which are wholly of stone or wrick, well constructed, so as to be guarded as well as may be against stress from within, and tree from extra hazardous buildings and occupations in their neighborhood, will be deemed hazardous of the first class, and may be insured to their full value.

Also Goods and Merchandize, not of an extra hazardous kind, in casks, bales, or packages, deposited in such buildings, to an amount not exceeding 4000 dollars; but if more than this sam is required to be insured in one tenement, an additional premium will be required, in proportion to circumstances.

11. Insurances will also be made on buildings and goods extra hazardous at premium stabout tomes.

tional premium will be required, in proportion to circumstances.

H. infurances will also be made on buildings and goods extro hazardous, at premiums proportioned to the risque. But it is not easy to arrange these under particular heads or classes, so as to describe each with the necessary accuracy. Each case must therefore be decided upon according to the circumstances a tending it; and these outcomstances will, in general, appear from the description accompanying the application.

Buildings partly constructed of brick or stone, are preserable to those wholly wooder. And in both cases, the stille of building, how they are occupied, how they are situated, the neighboring buildings, and how occupied, are considerations to be taken into view. And with respect to goods, their tendency, whether from their nature, or from the manner in which they are exposed, either to commence or to increase an accidental fire, and their liability in such state to receive damage by wet, or by sudden and halfy removal, or to be solen in time of consusion and hurry, are all circumstances of weight; and the premiums must be proportioned accordingly.

16. The infurance is not binding till the flipuaccording be paid; but it shall be deemed efectual from the time of such payment and accepance thereof, whether the policy be immediately cance thereof, whether the policy be immediately figned or not.

2d. Infurances may be renewed at the expiration of the term of the policy, without further expenses than the payment of the premium of the renewed term, the circumstances consisting the fame as they were understood by the Infurers at the time the former infurance was made; but the payment of the premium is effectial to such renewal; and if the party infured suffers any time to clapse after the expiration of the former infurance, before he pays a premium for the renewal, he is not insured during such time; nor can the insurance be renewed on the former policy but by computing the commencement of the renewal from the expiration of the former insurance. The subject of insurance may nevertheless be open to treaty for a new e may ne ercheles be open to treaty for a new durance.

3d. If any other infurance be made on the fame reporty; it must be made known at the time of aplication, otherwise the policy made on such application will be void.

4th Goods held in trust, or on configument, may be infured as such in a separate policy; but any ure not to be considered as infured otherwise.

To be leafed, for a term not less than three, nor more than seven years, a VALUABLE PROPERTY at the Seneca-Falls, in the county of Onondayo, and flate of New-York, on the Banks of the Seneca-river, two miles well of the Cayngaferry, and eleven miles east of Geneva.

This establishment conflists of an excellent grist mill, saw mill, dwelling house, barn, and a port age or carrying place, with between thirty and forty acres of land, under good improvement, and as much morein the vicinity, as may be required for future improvement.

as much more in the victure, as may be required as fact in a feverate policy; but to be confidered as infured otherwise. Company will not be liable or accounty lofs or damage occasioned by any torm, or by any military or ultraped force. —and the most approved boults, &c calculated to make all the different quarties of flour for exporand the molt approved boalts, &c calculated to make all the different quainties of flour for exportation or for home confumption: It is accessible by water from every part of the Cayuga lake and Seneca-river, as well as from the Seneca-lake—and from its fituation, commands a very extensive and encreasing custom: The fit of the Seneca-lake, the mill cau necessive be in wait of water; as well as from the Seneca-lake, the mill cau necessive be in wait of water; as well as it has been kept working during the feverest feason of the last winters, it is not liable to be impeded by frost:

The faw mill is affo new, fituated on the fame fircam, new turnished with an ample flock of logs, of which a supply may at all times be protuced by land or water, of the best quality:

The dwelling house is well calculated to make all the different quainties of flour for exportation or for home consumption: It is accessible by water from every part of the Cayuga lake and Seneca-river, as well as from the Seneca-lake, the mill cau necessive in wait of water; as well as from the Seneca-lake, the mill cau necessive be in wait of water; and as it has been kept working during the feverest feason of the last winter, it is not liable to be impeded by frost:

The faw mill is also new, fituated on the same fircam, new turnished with an ample flock of logs, of which a supply may at all times be protuced by land or water, of the best quality:

The dwelling house is well calculated for the use of the miller, is new, and sufficiently large: The barn is about 40 feet square, and entirely new:

The portage is 2-4ths of a mile in length, along the Seneca-falls—over which were passed in the last year, nearly two hundred boats with their contents; this object is already productive of a handsome income, which must be increasing and permanent:

A mount of the molt approved boats, to be calculated to make all the different quainties of flour for contents in the scance river, as well as from the Seneca-lake, the mill cau neces be in wait of water; as well

Among the many advantages of this fituation, must be numbered the fertility of the furrounding country—being the bast improved part of the country of Onondaga—the concentration of intercoarse by land and water, the Genessee stateroad passing through it, as well as all water carriage to Geneva, and the countres of Ontario and Steuben; which renders it a most eligible stand for a Store or Tavern—The river and lakes abound in fish and sowl, and the country with deer and other game. Besides the mills already erected at this place, it is calculated for any additional water works that may be seen and necessary—Fulling mill, bark mill tannery, forges, &c. may be crecked at a small expence—Iron ore may be brought in boats from the Cayuga lake; and it is thought to abound in the neighborhood.

The stock on hand will be fold to the lessee, and neighborhood.

The flock on hand will be fold to the leffce, and the cattle, utenfils, fmith's forge, &c. may be fold or let the premifes.

If a purchase should offer for the whole or an undivided part of the premises it will be fold.

For terms of sale or lease, apply to mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse, at the Seneca falls, or to the subscriber, at Schenesady.

STEPHEN N. BAYARD.

Federal Mills,

A DJOINING Georgetown, and the City of Washington, will be offered at Public Sale, on the 10th day of September next, at the Union Tavein, if not previously sold at Private sale.

Those mills in point of situation for business and natural advantages are generally admitted to be equal to any in America. The Merchant Mill is a large brick house, eighty feet by fifty, almost new, in which are ereded four pair of Burr mill-stones with elevators, hopperboys and bolting cloths, completely finished and constructed in such a manner that the whole of the mills may manufacture flour at the same time. The country mill which is erected near the other, is entirely new, a strong stone building, containing one pair of shones, and built in such a manner that the second pair may be put up with little expense. This mill is conveniently sinished, and calculated to carry on extensively, country work, of which it gets a constant supply. There is belonging to the faid mills 27½ acres of land, the whole of which will be fold with the mills.

One third of the purchase money will be required.

One third of the purchase money will be required in fixty days from the day of sale, and for the balance a liberal credit will be given. Further particulars will be made known on the day of sale.
