DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA, TO WIT:
 BE IT REMEMBERED,
THAT on the twelfth day of August, in the twenty-third year of the Independence of the United States of America, Benjamin Smith Barton, of the said district, hath deposited in this office the title of a book the right whereof he claims as author in the words following to wit:

"New Views of the Origin of the Tribes and Nations of America—By Benjamin Smith Barton, M. D. Correspondent Member of the Society of the Antiquaries of Scotland, Member of the American Philosophical Society, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences of Boston, Corresponding Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society, and Professor of Materia Medica, Natural History and Botany in the University of Pennsylvania."
 In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, intitled "An act for the encouragement of learning by securing the copies of maps, charts, and books, to the authors and proprietors, of such copies during the times therein mentioned," SAMUEL CALDWELL, Clerk, Dist. of Penn. November 2, 1798.

A CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.
 JOHN A. SHAEFFER, of Philadelphia, who has for a few years past been in the Southern States, has had the opportunity to draw several Bills of Exchange on Timothy Pickering, Esq. Secretary of State, and myself, and by that means has defrauded a number of persons of their money, deceiving them by an exhibition of letters and papers with the names affixed of divers public characters and reputable merchants highly recommending of said Shaeffer; to one of these papers I find my name subscribed, but I do not know the man; these are villainous forgeries! To prevent further imposition, I have to request the printers of Newspapers in their United States to publish this for the benefit of their fellow-citizens.
SAMUEL MEREDITH,
 Treasurer of the United States.
 Trenton, New-Jersey, October 24, 1798.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.
 DESERTED last night, a second time, from the Marine Camp, David Luper, a sifer.—He had when he went away, a plain blue jacket and vest, light blue overalls, a round hat, which had been bound with yellow, and which he had ripped off in his first desertion, and a pair of new shoes. He is a Carpenter by trade, has grey eyes, sandy hair, hollow complexion and a notch in his upper lip. His back is still sore from a flogging he got a few days ago. He may be discovered by his sifings, as he plays extremely well.

 DESERTED,
 From a Detachment of Men under my command, at Camp West Schuylkill, viz.

GEORGE KELLER, 40 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches in height, dark hair and complexion, born in Holland, no Trade, speaks broken English and very talkative, has a dimple in his chin.

November 6. John Murphy, 27 years of age, 5 feet 7 1/2 inches in height, grey eyes, dark hair and complexion, born in Ireland, city of Dublin, by trade a Hozier.

Jacob Eden, 34 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, grey eyes, sandy hair, fresh complexion, born in New-England, state of Connecticut, a repeated defector, by trade a Blacksmith.

November 7. William Collins, 30 years of age, 5 feet 6 inches high, sandy hair, fresh complexion, grey eyes, born in Ireland, county of Wexford, by trade a Gardner, has worked for some time about Philadelphia, he is very fond to hear himself Sing.

All the above deserters are very much addicted to liquor, and will take other people's property if in their power, are artificially marked on their backs, had on, when they went away, their regimental clothing. Whoever apprehends said deserters, shall receive forty dollars reward, or tea dollars for each, with all reasonable expenses, by applying to me as above,
EDWARD MILLER, captain
 2d regiment of Infantry commanding.
 nov 10

Sixty Dollars Reward.
 MADE their escape from the Gaol in the borough of Lancaster, on Saturday evening last, between the hours of 8 and 9 o'clock, two French prisoners, the part of the crew of La Croyable.

The one named Etienne Austin, a native of Bordeaux in France, 26 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, dark eyes and complexion, by trade a carpenter, supposed to be unacquainted with the English or German language. Had on when he went away, a white hat, pantaloons, and short jacket, tight made, and probably took with him some other clothes.

The other named Peter Deprieux, a native of Beaujon in France, 20 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, grey eyes, dark complexion, a seaman by occupation, a dirty ill-looking fellow. Had on when he went away, a blue fater's jacket, with large tow trousers, an old wool hat, speaks imperfect German.

Also, made his escape the same day, about nine o'clock in the morning, from the same gaol, a negro man named Peter Hagan, about 5 feet 4 inches high, of a smiling countenance, lately convicted of a leonny in this county. Had on when he went away, a long blue coat, a pair of white trousers, both ragged, and a black hat.

Twenty-five dollars will be paid for apprehending and securing in any goal, each or either of the above named Frenchmen, and Ten dollars for the negro, by Christian Carpenter, jun. Sheriff.

 Lancaster, Oct. 20, 1798.

Forty Dollars Reward
 FOR APPREHENDING
A GENTLEMAN NEGRO,
 BY name GEORGE or GEORGE PARKER, the property of the subscriber, who has thought proper on the night of the 21st inst. to elope from his master without any provocation or just cause; he was formerly the property of Beckwith Butler, Esq. and lived a considerable time with Pottinger, who kept tavern in Frederickburg, having been much company and travelled with several gentlemen through different parts of this state, he is much known. It is therefore conjectured he will push for some of the northern cities or towns as he has discovered an aversion to plantation work, though he has a brother belonging to the ridge where he has a property belonging to major Butler.

This fellow is about five feet seven inches high, well proportioned and walks active and brisk, his countenance is open and agreeable enough when in good humor, he can hardly be surpris in shrewdness, and is a very capable waiting-man, house servant, barber, &c. To describe his dress would be useless, as he possessed a variety of clothes, though when dressed lately, he wore a green coat bound with white ferrering and spotted jacket and breeches. Whoever brings him home or secures in goal in this or any other state the said slave, so that I may get him again, shall have the above reward.

 At the request of the Inhabitants of the Town of BOSTON, in commemoration of the anniversary of American Independence.
 By JOSEPH QUINCY.
 "The inroads upon our public liberty, call for reparation.—The wrongs we have sustained, call for—Justice. That Reparation and that Justice, may yet be obtained, by Union, Spirit, and Firmness. But to divide and conquer was the maxim of the Devil in the garden of Eden, and to divide and enslave hath been the principle of all his votaries from that period to the present."

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
 JUNE 27, 1798.
 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That by virtue of an act, passed during the present session of Congress, so much of the act entitled "An Act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt"—passed the third day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, as bears from settlement or allowance, Certificates, commonly called Loan Office and final settlement Certificates, and Indents of interest, is suspended until the twelfth day of June, which will be in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

That on the liquidation and settlement of the said Certificates, and Indents of interest, at the Treasury, the Creditors will be entitled to receive Certificates of funded Three Per Cent. Stock equal to the amount of the said Indents, and the arrearages of interest due on their said Certificates, prior to the first day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.
 That the principal sums of the said Loan Office and final settlement Certificates, with the interest thereon, since the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, will be discharged after liquidation at the Treasury, by the payment of interest and reimbursement of principal, equal to the sums which would have been payable thereon, if the said Certificates had been subscribed, pursuant to the Acts making provision for the debts of the United States, contracted during the late war, and by the payment of other sums, equal to the market value of the remaining Stock, which would have been created by such subscriptions as aforesaid, which market value will be determined by the Comptroller of the Treasury.
