Is there an American, young or old, not in-terested in the History of the first Rise and Progress of his native Country, and from so celebrated a pen as that of Doctor Robertson?

Just Published, AND TO BE SOLD BY JAMES HUMPHREYS, No. 59, fouth Third fireet, opposite the Bank of the United States, (Price one dollar neatly bound and lettered, in boards, fix shillings)

Dr. Robertson's History of AMERICA,

Gontaining

The history of Virginia to the year 1685, and the history of New-England to the year 1682, being what the Doctor had completed previous to his death. It has lately been given to the public with a preface by his fon at Edinburgh, has already passed through three or four editions, and hasbeen translated and pub-ted and pub-lished in French at Paris.

Ithed in French at Paris.

Mr. Robertson in his preface colorves,

"During the course of tedious illness, which he early foresaw would have a stata termination, Dr. Robertson at different times destroyed many of his papers: But after his death, I sound that part of the History of (British) America which he had wrote many years before, and which is now offered to the public. It is written with his own hand as all his works were; it is as carefully corrected as any part of his manuscripts which I have ever seen; and he had thought it worthy of being preserved, as it escaped the flames to which so many other papers had been committed. I read it with the utmost attention; but, before I came to any resolution about the publication, I put the MSS, into the hands of some of those ziends whom my father used to consult on such oscassions, as it would have been rashness and presumption in me, to have trusted to my own partial derisson. It was perused by sme other persons also, in whose taste and judgment I have the greatest considence: by all of them I was encouraged to offer it to the public, as curious and interesting in itself, and not inferior to any of my father's other works."

The Editor of the Paris Edition apostrophizes the above work in the following manner.

"Every thing ensures success to this volume the talents and reputation of the author, and the impression still recent in the minds of all who have read the excellent work of which this is the completion—all conspire to give it an extensive spread. The history of America was the master-piece of one of the two abless, or ranker one of the two only modern historians. He has created this part of history, distinguished with the hand of a master the part of genius, fortune, courage and crime, and consperded as it were, America, for licerary, commercial, and political Europe.

"To ensure this last volume circulation, it is necessary only to name its author, and to remark, it possesses and of mireling with the account of events, the wholesoment and most approved
