TAKE NOTICE,
THAT I am to be sold on such terms, that the purchaser need not advance any cash, unless he pleases, till it is earned by my services, provided no accident happens me; or, if you please, I am to be farmed out for two years, and not less. I am a bright bay, full 13 1/2 hands high, of noble descent, my name is TRIMMER.—I was got by Hall's imported horse Eclipse, my dam, purchased by Doctor Hall, was got by the imported horse Slin; my grand dam was got by Old Figure; my great grand dam by Tasker Othello out of Selims, &c. &c. as will more fully appear by William Lyle's attested certificate who raised me. My character as a racer is well established; I won the colt's purse at Bladesburg of twenty guineas; I won a fifty guinea purse at Baltimore, a fifty guinea purse at Annapolis and a fifty guinea purse at Hagerstown. I never lost a race but the last I ran at Alexandria, which was owing to my being badly shod, as I lost all my plates before I got in. I am in fine plight, found in every respect; my offspring are in great repute, some of which are now in training for the turf—procure me good stands and entertainment and I am able to earn one thousand dollars per annum.
Any person inclining to buy or rent may know the terms by applying to John Carnau (Loveall) Cecil county and state of Maryland, eight miles south of Elkton.

Laws of the United States.
By Authority.

Fifth Congress of the United States
At the Third Session, begun and held at the City of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, on Monday, the third of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight.

AN ACT
To amend an Act, entitled "An Act giving effect to the Laws of the United States within the District of Tennessee."

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That any person who shall commit an offence against the laws of the United States, on the east side of Cumberland mountain, within the district of Tennessee, shall not be held to answer at the court at Nashville, or any other place, on the west side of said mountain; and that any person who shall commit an offence against the laws of the United States on the west side of said mountain, within the said district, shall not be held to answer at the court at Knoxville, or any other place, upon the east side of said mountain, but that all persons who shall commit offences against the laws of the United States (within the said district) shall be held to answer in the court on that side of the said mountain, where such offence shall have been committed.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That any suits which shall be brought by the United States, in the district court of Tennessee, against any person residing on the east side of said mountain, shall not be returned to the court at Nashville, on the west side of said mountain; and that any suits which shall be brought by the United States, against any person residing upon the west side of said mountain, shall not be returned to the court at Knoxville, on the east side of said mountain. But that all suits which shall be brought by the United States, against any person or persons, residing on the respective sides of the said mountain, shall be returned to the court, on that side of the said mountain, where the defendant or defendants shall reside, or be found at the time of bringing such suit or suits.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the western foot of Cumberland mountain shall be the boundary, dividing the jurisdiction of the eastern, from the western side of said mountain.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all suits which may be brought as aforesaid, shall be proceeded upon to final judgment in the court wherein such suit or suits shall have been originally returned, and it shall be the duty of the clerk for the district of Tennessee, to keep two separate dockets, for the purposes aforesaid, one for the court at Nashville, and one for the court at Knoxville.—Provided, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed, as to prevent writs of execution issued from either of the said courts, being executed on the person or property of the defendant or defendants, in any part of the district of Tennessee, in the same manner as if this Act had never been passed.
