$25 y$ this Day's Matil.
NEWBURYPORT, March 5 .

 in be A mericio newt. Com oeation Barp the fime day with w, and had got out frititit

Wosson, Narch s.

 botien-after fiting acomifarable time dren came to their dezth by certair poifon-dus fobffances recived into their fomachs, and admiofitered by Jacob Porter, and Abi. and adminifterect by Jacob Porter, and Abigail, whom he cills his wife, the reputed Pa . rents of thechildren reats of the children.
The NEW-YORK, March is day, when they received the enlivented yeffer- falutation froin the fhip Sanfon, as fhe approached the harb ur. She failed from Madras on the 16 th of Ociober, under convoy, and in the 16 th of October, under convoy, and in company with the following Engtion India men, viz.
Lord Camden (Com. Thip) Dover Cafle, Heñry Dundas, Good Hope, Bubbridge, and Hes ry Dundas, Good Hope, Bubbridge, and Veruna; with the Mount Vernon, for Batimore-They all arrived off the Cape of Beruna; with the Mount Vernon, for Batimore-They all arrivedoft he Cape of Good Hope on New Year's day -at St. Helena the 16 th Jan - from whence the San fom and Mount Verrion failed the oth, Yom and Mount Verion failed the 2 oth, On account of wefterly winds the Mount Veenon did not expect to arrive as foon as the Sanfon.
A gentleman on board the Sanfom informs us, that in confequence of the manceuvres of us, that in confequence of thie manee Tippo Saib, the Entlifh had ordered arny of obforvation of of,ooo inen. arny of obforvation of 20,000 imen.
HHe allo informs us of the capture of two English Indiamen (the Raymond and WoodEnglirh Indiamen (the Raymond and Woodcock on the coaff of Malabar. The cap tain of the Raymond was killed in the ac It is thirreen months fince the Sanfom tion. left this port; and we are happy to obferve, there is every profpect of her having made a producive voyage. productive voyage.
Yefferday arrived here from Jamaica, the Snow Chathan, Stanwood, On the 26 th of February, off Cape Antonia, at $7 \mathrm{~A} . \mathrm{M}$. of February of Cape Antonia, at 7 A. M. fawa fail-at half paft 7 , fawtwo chooneres.
The faw a fail-at hall paft 7 , faw two fchooners.
The 6 ff veffel appeared to be the Lucretia, Weilh, of Bofton, from Kingflon, bound to We ilh, of Bofonn, from Kington, bound to Norfolk, the other a French privateer. The Lucretia, unarmed, fent 4 menn on board Lucretia, unarmed, fenit 4 men on board the Chathan, in order to defend both veflels.
Having got the men on board, cleared for Having got the men on board, cleared for action, which commenced thale paf ten, and continued for three glafles-during the and contimued for three glales-d engagenent, the privateer kept in thoal wa-th which ave her an advantacie over the ter, which gave her an advantase over the Chatham. The Lucretia, bein a heay failer, fell aftern to the wiodward, which end bled the privateer to cut her off.
The privater, havin boarded her prize, imniediately after made fail for the Chatham The privateer, havinp boarded her prize, imnediately after made fail for the Chathiam ot renew the ation, with her bloody fag Afving; which was renewed at half paft +2 , Atving; which was renewed at half paft t2, and continued for thrice claffes more, during Which tine they had reafon to believe, from Which time they had reaton to believe, from the confurion, confiderable flawster was made on board the privateer, they having frume upa dead main to the yard arm, as a made on board the privateer, they having frung upa dead nana to the yard am, as a ginal of their fate, fad they fallen into their ginds A tee the engarement, the privateer haids. After the engarement, the privateer fieered off, 2nd would have, been purfued, had not captain Stanwood expended aloiof had not captain alt his anmunitin. The next day fpoke the brig Polly, Weft, of Providence, who the brig Polly, Weft, of Providence, who was detained four days by faid privateee - havino no carco, was difcharece. He inhaving no cargo, was difcharged. He in-forned us fhe was from the Favanna, and that her force was four fixes, and one 24 pounder mounted on a fwivel in the hatchpay, and 75 men. The Chatham had fix fixes. and 17 men, none of whom were the Jeaft injured; and all the damage the the leaff injured; and all the damnage the veffel received, was the flattering of her boarding ffar over the ffern, and a fhot or

Dr. Johilfon's account of the republicanifm of Nailon, though perhaps exaggerated

 Seing fo much the lov pug sance to authority."
\% We are, at prefent, in a perilous תate, and it is to te fearce, on the brimk or calanity. Minaced with the refentment of

Ihe Gasette.

PHILADELPHIA,

(Continued.) TALLEYR AND now difcovered many of bis old co-mates, whiofe vifages were not to- tally obliterated. Robelpierre, Danton, Cartally obliterated. Robelpierres, Danton, Car- not, Brifot, Marat, Condorcet, and the Opra- tor of the human race wer

 bor. The difinaction of Cordelier the num- Jaco-bin, appeared to be altogether forgotten; bin, appeared to Be altogether forgotten; thole ties, which on earth bound fome of them together in one deadly intereft wis them together in one deadly intereft, were broken ; and each perturbed fpirit became a Fury of vengeance to his brother. But amid this throng of Republicans and PhiloPophers, he looked in vain for Mirabeav, and ventured, in a tremulous voice, to afk his guide in what manner his earlieft and deareft aflociate was difpofed of. For him, replied affociate was difpofed of. For him, replied the ghoin, has been feferved a deeper and heavier perdition. heavier perdition. He is now fuffering in the hidden cells of anewin. the hidden cells of anguif, the very fight of which would fiffen all thy joints with horro. In the entrails of yonder rock, which rifes from that ocean of liquid fire whofe rifes from that ocean of liquid fire whofe waves never fleep, is the home, the laft dreadful home of Mirabeau-Mirabeau, whofe dreadful home of Mirabeau-Mirabeau, whofe facrileg ous purpofes were conceived in darknefs, and brought forth in blood; whofe crimes were more numerous than the fiends which furround thee, more femorfelefs than The bofom of Alecto: Whofe corrupt heart rotted in its own impurity; who died blaf rotted in its own impurity; who died blaft pheming; and, to honor whofe peftilential remains, the afhes of a virgin Saint were torn from tlieir hallowed.ref, and feattered to the winds of Heaven. Nor is Mirabeay a folitary fufferen: Voltaire and all thof a folitary fufferer: Voltaire and all thofe whofe bodies pollute the holy flarine of St Genevieve, with the apoftate. Priefts and Bithops, are thus racked on the excruciatir Thops, are thus racked on the excrusiating wheel of hopelefs Defpair.
After a momentary filence, the mingling yells of varied torture burk from their confinement; a black whirlwind fwept along the gulph; and the fatal orb moved from its fation. As it gradually defcended, Talleyrand followed it with his eyes till it was lof in total darkness. The pates felf lolk in total darknefs. The gates, felf-moving, now clofed the terrific feene, and left the Miniffer to ruminate on the wonders of the place, as his guide conduted him, filently, towards the Palace of Pluto They foon arived in fight of thofe delightful fields where the fpirits of the great and good repofe in endlefs felicity. When com to the refidence of the Prince of Darknefs, Egalité was difmiffed, and Talleyrand was delivered over to the flade of delivered over to the flade of Dulau, the unfortunate Archbihop of A rles. Different; fortunate Archbilhop of Arles. Different, indeed, were the objeds of Talleyrand's contemplation, as he paffed along the flowery banks of Elyfium, from thofe he thad banks of Elyfium, from thofe he had witnefled on the borders of Phlecethon. neffied on the borders of Phlegethon. Pure rills guthing from their rofe-fringed fountains, "on orient pearls and fands of gold", bubbled along in mazy wantonnefs; thoububbled along in mazy wantonnefs; thou-fands of cool and pleafant arbours rofe, in blooming tufts, on ever fide :-Not a grove but had fome new and cantivis. but had fome new and captivating beauty; not a mead but was impurpled with the vi tet, or fulhed with the carnation:-The voice of extacy warbled from every bufl the frite of celeftial joy glittered on every countenance: - "The fcene fhone bright with ilifs"; and every thing feemed togive evidence that it was the " Place ". Where mischiefs sever fly, cares never come Nor malice forks tongued." formance, is rather interefling, it is with pieafure we liy it before our readers. It may be condidered as no urfavorable fpecimen of his ferious pnetry. may be confidered as no urfakorable fecimen of his ferious poetry, "There rape no forms, the fun diffles the His temper'd beame thio' nkies forever fair: There gentler airs $0^{\circ} \mathrm{Cr}$ b brakes of myrcle blow Hillo greener rife, and purer waters, flow. Thiere bud the woodbine and the jes'mine pale
With every bloom that feents the morning gale Whith every bloom that feents the morning gale
In filken nalliance, to the tound the the bre ezes bea In filken dalliance, to the dreaming ear,
And golden fruits, mid fhadowy blofloms, 1 And golden fruits, mid fhadowy bloftoms,
In fields immortal, and in groves divine, is on ward thro' the joyful plains he goes, Th' apoftate prieft no touch of comfort kno The fight of fauited fouls in plafure lyid By every ftresm ; and bleff 'c in every flisde, Joys which his guilty ghoft muft never thare; oys which his guilty ghoft muft never thare, His fpirit planged in comforleff deppair. E'en then when mem'ry thew'd his every fin, When all was darknefs and remorie within, His martyr guide direest his rembling eyes,
To where his menarch's pcicefulu refuge lies; Were, in the centre of a blooming wood, mnioutal Louis refl, the mild and good. A crown he wore by angel fingers made : Around his head celeftial glorics play'd;
Th wraathes of light his radiant lime In wraathes of light bis radiant limbs were dief
And traifport harbour'd in his boly breaft? Clofe by his fide, in beanty's pride, was feen, In bowers of blifs, like the firt pair, they play In bowers of bilis, like the firft pair, they play, Or haud in hand, purfue their flow'ry way. A fightelike thie, po keeaer pangs confign'd The quivering texiure of his blafted mind, When thus his guide: "Behold that lovely par Wtoff ino'cent blood, byruffian hands, was hied Whie eall'd no curfes one their mundifer's head Thefe charms can filence, and no prayers appeafe. It mounts, like incenfe, to th' cternal throne,
And bring sthe judy ments of th'A Amighty dbwh. Qirick fies the cime, the rapid hours advance That wing the dreadful de fing of Trance.
Her race, her horrid race of crime is run Her race, her horrid race of crime is run Beneath th' horizon finks her bloody fun; The cloud built turrect of her pride decay ;
 The laff fad night of Anarch's fell carcer:-

- The time has been, 'ere feribbling knaves | $\begin{array}{c}\text { began } \\ \text { Toclaim more }\end{array}$ |
| :---: |

ore rights than Goddefign'd for man, To teach mankind that paffion never flrays, That human nature's juf in all her ways, That Chrifian faws are ludierounly nice, And fweet, oh! fweel's the downy bed of And weet, oh h. . weet's hie downy bect of vice Ere convic Thiere, at their own fate amazed, Were frum the gallows to the Pulpit raifed; Ere, in the face of guit-aunoying day, The mother play'd to fhew her child the way Ere the fon pluck'd the hoayy father's beard; Ere beggars reig fear'd;
While Paris, pet, could plead her virtuous ten The time has been that gave the rultic throng Their evenigg ballet, and their morning fong.
E'on Paris, then, her harmlefs joys couldboast E on Paris, then, her harmlefis joys csuld boaft Who was moft upright, then, was honor'd mof?
Axd no vile blouth our grateful checeks o'ef To alk a blefing on our Monarch's head. In thore good days, it was not Arange eo ben With cordial friendhip óera bleceding friend To fee a foe in curelelis anguifh lay And fmooth his pillow as he paff'd away.
Then want was furcuib'd with the means to For men had hears to feel and hands to give Then wealth difpenfed what happinefs
To talfe the luxury of doing good:
Then beauty wepr at fympathy's command,
Tell me, falfe Autun, what has France obtain, In lieu of thefe; what great advantage gain'c With all your new illumination fired,
With venerable piles in ruin laid, With all the Hamlet's fweet delights $0^{\circ}$ erthrow With flocks andone, and pious paffors flown, With knaves caroufing where the poor were fec With ev'ry gen'rous, focial virtue dead,
With all there bleffings added to With all hiefe ebleingss added to your tho
We are forry the extent of our plan wil not fuffer us to give the whole of this pa fage; but we will felect from it that par which particularly refers to A metica which particularly refers to America. After Talleyrand becaine affured of the final tri umph of Great Britain, and of the reftora umph of Great Britain, and of the reftora iori of monarchy in France, he was folicit ous to kow in what manner the difference with America would terminate ; as he had fill hopes of getting a crop from her, before he fhould be obliged to refign the tafk, of ne thould be obiged to reign the taik, of renting out the globe to other hands. It was true, fhe had been kicked and bruifed with too little ceremony, and it was faid The was preparing to kick in her turn; bu this report feemed; to Talleyrand, rathe problematical, inafmuch as the had been cuffed for many years without refentment complaim, or even a murbmur. He, howeve wiffed to know, if her back was, abfolutely up, whether a litelle ffected humiliation, and forrow for the pant, would not happily reftor him once more to her confidence. Dalat ayf ivers :
hat athere are two Prench fehoosers arm Fing of the Havannal, to intercept A meri, cans. CCapt. Deecarug gat in fight of fhem twice, but could not overhaul them. Capt:
W. left upwards of 90 fail of Americans in Oijette Marine 进iff: Port of Pbiladelpbia, of without damage.

The effels at Marcus Hook are detained by the ice Trene prifones, par of the craw of off So the poor girl, whofe bold feducer flies: With fleps, too ride, to feize the virgin prize, Erowno on the wretch who dar'd invade her charns,

And all her injur'd felings rufh to arms.
But foon recurn'd, he drops an autful tear,
But foon recurn'd, he drops an ant ful tear,
And poours sis plaintive forrows in her cer, Tith
An pours his plaintive forrows in her ear, Till treacherous love admits the wily cheat,
Till reacherous love admist the wily cheat,
And famps her ruin and her hame complete.
So Satan, once with "d diplomatic arill," So Satan, once with "diplomatic akill," Beguild the troth of Adam's honelt mind, Beguird the truth of Adam's honett mind,

And naild the yoke of mirctief on maukinid.
Infatuate men ! while clouds inveft the air,
Infatuate men 1 while clouds inveft the air,
You fondly dream, to morrow will be fair.
Sou fondily dream, to motrow will be fair.
Still carelfs on the fame dull road youl fray,
Still carelefs on the fame dull road you fray
Nor heed the flormy dangers of the way.
Nor heed the ftormy dangers of the way.
With you the frolic and the fest is found,
The Chariot rattes and the glafs goes round.
Nor heed the flormy dangers of the way.
With yout the frolic and the feffit ifond,
The Chariot ratteses and the glafs goea round.
The Chariot rattles and the glafs goes round.
You ftill can truck your waree, and goto bed
With fome new freculation in your head ;
With fome new fpeculation in your head ;
Still
With fome new fpeculation in your head ;
Still ftrut the 'Change with Haberdafier pride Still count the profits, and the gain divide :
Still count the profits, and the gain divide;
Still take the breakfaft paper, and explore Stil take the breakfalt paper, and exploe
The advertiang columns o'er and o'er;
And, if the tale mould meet your lintes

| The advertiing columns o'er and o'er; |
| :--- |
| And, if the tale fhould meet your liftlefo glance |

Of fome new land 2 prey to bloody France,
You ftill can look at home, with vaft content,
You Rill can look at home, with vaft content,
And underwrite the flate for one per cent.
Such was the prophetic foirit of our anu Such was the prophetic fpirit of our au hor when engaged in this truly crriou Ittele work. But what can we fay of his
. y not the offspring o lickly imagination brooding over its ow isfortunes? Meteors of a fagnant mind the vistim of a fedentary life? Surely, fure ly, America, after her long fuffering, is no America, atter her long fuffering, is volutionary milery. And yet -

A aplancholy accident happened on Wed.
nefday morning laft, wherebe a negro man was infantaneoufly kilted. - The circumflan.
A avelancholy accident happened on Wed.
nefday morning laft, whereby a negro man was infanantaneoufly kilted. - The circumflan cess as far as we can learra are, that a boy having laid hands. on his mont having laid hands on his mafter's pifools, Which weere loaded, carried them into an apartwemt where the negro man and a mulatto woman were emploved in domeftio affoire.
Co woman were employed man and a mulat-the mana jocofic aftairs the mas jocotely wold the womina to take one, rctreat to 2 proper diffance, and fire-hie did fo, when the ball enteced the did fo, when the barll entancere, the thane-min' head and put an end to his exiffence-they both and put a an end to his exifence- -they both fifed at the fame time, but the woman recived no injury. The above circumflance ceived no injury. The above circumflance hould operate as a warning to all perfons What
Who have occaifion to corring lo like weappons, no to fuffer them to be expofed to the cirin to futter them to be expofed to the curiofiy of cilden and feryants, whofe little knowledge of them, frequently produce difaftrou effets.
effels.
On Saturday wa launched from Meffrs.
Steel and Lamdin's flip yard, Fell's Point Steel and Lamdin's fhip yard, Fell's Point, an elegant brig, named Mary Ann-Eliza,
and 200 to gins.
Married on Thurfay evening laft, by Michael Fillegas, Erq. Mr. Edmond Kinjey, (Saddler to Mifo Polly Kecgan, both of this City.
(Saddler)
(his City.

Co let affegicn gliner thro'a tear ;
Co proffer peace, , the peaceful land will hear.
Go proffer peace,--the peaceful land will hear While fordid commerce hugsher manglect trade While fordid commer ce huy gher mangelect trad While public crame a thave to gold is made;
Wbile thefis and infuls only rouch the treatf
With grief for fome, and hooe to fave therefl With grief for fome, and hope to fave theref Tho' but two frations of the whole remain,
Who pleado for pezace will never plead in vain
To fee thee fmiles an ane wify willing prize.:
The gates of Janus there are ever latrid;
The gates of Janus there are Thou'rl fure to triun ph, thougb thy terms ar hard.
And when the fattering league of frien made,
When every little fear in peace is 1 2id ;
When, wrapp'd in fpecious ret, thyy blefs Thie future fair, and all the pall forgot,
The future fair, and all the palf forgot,
Then cut the mounds of faction's lawlels flood
And

| And drench another land in tears and blood: |
| :--- |
| Infatuate men, ah |
| 1 Wht avelo |

and secench another land in tears and blood.
Infituate men, ah! what avails y cur boaff,
Your rifing Navy,

Fis, all, the wrecched inaluw for the fpoiler comes "with wanton wiles,
With
Hor foon the fpoiler comes " with wanton wilat With quips, and cranks, and nods, and wr cath-ed fmiles";
With quips, and cranks, and nods, and de fmiles"
Difarms your vengeance, fays the lifted blow
And lay's your freedon and your honot
So the poor girl, whofe bold feducer flies.
So the poor girl, whofe bold fedcucer fies With feps, too ride to feize the virgin prize, convoy, bound here wifth 25 fail under our tinent. A Britifent ports of tic coun-wind.

windward of us, running into the fleet:
how they will conduct themflese I cminot fodge.

$\frac{\text { ward of the Mantazas." }}{\text { Attention ! }}$

תen= Eheatre.  Remo ELbeatte

 DESERTED DAUGHTER. THE DEUCE IS IS IN HIM.
DoL, one Dollar-PIT, three quarters of DALLERY, half a Dollar.
Or The Doors of the Theatre Itr The Doors of the Theatre will open at quarter paft, , and the hearre will open quarter paft $60^{\circ}$ clock precifely.

ten till one, and on the days of performance, from ten till foul from ten till four.
WED On Mosday, a Comedy, called WEDING IN WALES.
IMPORTM

Nand

monturnem pat

| atc The Doors of the Theatre will open at a quarter paft 5 , and the Cur quarter paft $60^{\circ}$ clock precifely.  Mr. Welles in the Boxes to be taken of ten till one, and on the days of performance from ten till four.  Of Moxday, a Comedy, callec WEDDING IN WALES.  I MPORTED,  In the Britith ftip Douglas, capt. Walker, from  Cannon-Woolwich proof glb caliber, bored fror  Ditto of 61 lb caliber, we. itlb, 2 grs , each,  Ditto Swivels, mounted  Camnon fhot, viz. Canaifter, bar and round 30 cafes thins  30 cafes Chips muikets, fowling pieces and mulket  oons  Ship Store, Horfemen's and Saddle Piftols, A large affortment of Flints,  I50 cafks Porter, Prown Stout in Bottles,  Panthcon Stoves afforted from 20 to 40 inche  $4 \varphi$ Cafks Shot, No. 1 , and 6 ,  3000 Bufhels Coals,  50 Crates Window Glafs 100 Crates and 10 hhds. Queens Ware adapted to the Wef In dia Mrrker.  6 bales Whitney biankets $3-4$ and $10-4$ For fale by THOMAS E JOHN KETLAND.  Who bave alfo on band,  Claret in cales, firit quality, Old Port Wige  Horfemen's fwords, hangers, \&e.  Dry While Lead  Ironmongery and webbing by the package, Bofton Beef,  Painted floor cloths, \&cc. \&\&c. March 16, |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

THE DEUCE IS IN HIM.
THIS EVENING, Marcb I 6 .
WLLL BE PRESENTB,
(Not aeted this feafon a celebrated COMEDY DESERTED the DAUGHTER.

| Dowlaf, whole pieces, | $E$  Entitled to draw-  back. |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  |  |  |
| Ditto, hall piaces, |  |  | | d ${ }^{\text {a }}$ |  |  |

an elegant brig, named Mary-Ann-Eliza,
zoo tons burthen, and pierced for lixteen guns.

Ditto deck nail rodtried and uncurled,
March 15.
A NEGRO BOY.

8 Weavers.
RAL WEAVERS

