Auctioneers,
THOMAS GREENE, or
ISAAC W. MORRIS,
March 6, 1799

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 5th, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,
THAT by an act of Congress

passed the 28th day of February, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine, the following alterations and amendments have been made to an act passed on the 21st day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, intitled, "An act laying duties upon stamped vellum, parchment and paper."

I. The stamp duties heretofore imposed upon foreign bills of exchange and bills of lading are to cease and determine from and after the 31st day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine.

II. The several stamp duties hereafter enumerated will be levied and collected throughout the United States, from and after the 31st day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine.

For every skin, or piece of vellum or parchment or sheet or piece of paper, upon which shall be written or printed either of the instruments or writings following, to wit:

Dolls.	Cts.
Any foreign bill of exchange, draft or order for the payment of money in any foreign country.	20
Any note or bill of lading, or writing or receipt in nature thereof, for goods or merchandise to be exported;—if from one district to another district of the United States, not being in the same State.	4
If from the United States to any foreign port or place.	10
Any policy of insurance, or instrument in the nature thereof, other than those heretofore specified in the above recited act, when the sum insured shall not exceed five hundred dollars.	25

III. Bonds required in any case by the Laws of the United States, or of any State, upon legal process, or in any judicial proceeding, or for the faithful performance of any trust or duty are exempt from the payment of Stamp Duties.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned,
OLIVER WOLCOTT,
Secretary of the Treasury.
March 7, 1799

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, March 11th, 1799.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

Pursuant to the act of Congress passed on the 1st day of June, one thousand, seven hundred and ninety six, entitled "An act regulating the grants of land appropriated for military services, and for the society of United Brethren for propagating the gospel among the Heathen;" and the act supplementary to the said act passed on the second day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine—to wit:

I. THAT the tract of Land herein after described, namely, "beginning at the North West corner of the seven ranges of townships, and running thence fifty miles due south, along the western boundary of the said ranges;—thence due West to the Main Branch of the Scioto river;—thence up the Main Branch of the said river to the place where the Indian boundary line crosses the line;—thence along the said boundary line to the Tuckertons branch of the Muskingum river at the crossing place above Fort Lawrence;—thence down the said river, to the point where a line run due west from the place of beginning, will intersect the said river;—thence along the line so run to the place of beginning;" has been divided into townships of five miles square, and fractional parts of townships; and that plats and surveys of the said townships and fractional parts of townships are deposited in the offices of the Register of the Treasury and Surveyor General, for the inspection of all persons concerned.

II. The holders of such warrants as have been or shall be granted for military services performed during the late war, are required to present the same to the Register of the Treasury, at some time prior to the twelfth day of February in the year, one thousand eight hundred, for the purpose of being registered; No registry will however be made of any less quantity than a quarter township, or four thousand acres.

III. The priority of location of the warrants which may be presented and registered in manner aforesaid, prior to the 12th day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred, will immediately after the said day, be determined by lot, in the mode described by the act aforesaid recited.

IV. The holders of registered warrants, shall on Monday the 17th day of February, in the year 1800, in the order of which the priority of location shall be determined by lot as aforesaid, personally, or by their agents, designated in writing at the office of the Register of the Treasury, the particular quarter townships elected by them respectively, and such of the said holders as shall not designate their locations on the said day, shall be postponed in locating such warrants to all other holders of registered warrants.

V. The holders of warrants for military services sufficient to cover one or more quarter townships or tracts of less than one thousand acres each; shall, at any time after Monday the 17th day of February, 1800 and prior to the first day of January, 1802, be allowed to register the said warrants in manner aforesaid, and forthwith to make locations thereon on any tract of tracts of land not before located.

VI. All warrants or claims for lands on account of military services, which shall not be registered and located before the first day of January, 1802, are by the supplementary act of Congress herein before recited, passed on the second day of March, 1799, declared to be forever barred.

Given under my hand at Philadelphia, the day and year above mentioned,
OLIVER WOLCOTT,
Sec. of the Treasury.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscribers, living in Somerset county, State of Maryland, on the 24th of December last, two Negro Men; George and Randal. George is about six feet high, twenty-two years of age, and of a yellow complexion; had on when he went away a dark cloth coat, kersey breeches and white yarn stockings; he is a pretty good player on the fiddle.—Randal is about five feet two inches high, twenty years of age, and of a yellow complexion, has a loud hoarse voice, and is a good deal bow-legged; he pretends to be something of a cobbler;—had on when he went away a fustian coat, home-made kersey breeches and white yarn stockings; as well as shoes, but they will change their clothes as well as their names;—they have been taken up on the 20th of December last at Duck-creek, in the State of Delaware, and committed by John Cole, Esq. (by the names of Stephen and Charles) to the care of John McWherter and Thomas Kerker, from whom they made their escape;—Whoever apprehends the above negroes, and has them secured in jail, so that the subscribers may get them again, shall receive the above reward, or fifty dollars for either.

Sales of Valuable Property.

On THURSDAY the 28th day of March instant,

Will be Sold by Public Vendue,

At the Middle Ferry, near the Falls of Delaware,
THE FOLLOWING
Messuage, Lots, Buildings, Water-walks and Plantations,
Situate in the county of Bucks, opposite to the thriving towns of Trenton and Lambertton, being part of Morrisville Estate.

1. THE mansion house lately occupied by Robert Morris, jun. Esq. with 34 acres of land, including an excellent garden, orchard and some wood.

The house is nearly new, consisting of a hall, two passages, two elegant bow rooms and three other rooms on the main floor; four chambers with convenient garrets on the upper floor; it is surrounded by a piazza of 14 feet depth, and under it are kitchens, servants hall, two chambers for servants, with cellars and vaults.

Adjoining and communicating is a nice-hofe, milk-hofe and smoke-hofe, and at a convenient distance are substantial brick stables capable of containing ten horses, and four carriage hofes, with every necessary accommodation for servants.

2. The ferry from Pennsylvania to New-Jersey, with a large convenient house, one part of stone the other brick; a good stone barn and stabling for 20 horses, with this will be sold 18 acres of land, and the privilege of landing on any part of the estate.

3. Four frame hofes on the main road leading from Bristol to the ferry, each accommodated with a lot, 60 feet front and 200 feet deep.

4. A good two story frame hofe on the old river road, with a lot of the above dimensions, and a good Smith's shop adjoining.

5. A frame hofe, and saw makers shop on Mill street.

6. 20 hofes of different sizes on the same street.

A hofe now in the tenure of R. Trimble with a large barn, barack, and extensive lot. Several buildings repaired and work shop.

A large lake hofe.

Six brick buildings, with good lots near the upper ferry.

An island in the river Delaware, containing about 40 acres, above the mill dam, and the island below, on which are the following works.
Saw-mill, Plaster of Paris mill, Saw-mill, Grindstone-mill, Slitting mill, mill for rolling bolts, rolling mill for rolling bar into sheet iron or hoops, mill for drawing wire, trip hammer.

A forges and complete air furnace for converting pig into bar iron.

The whole of the island, and the above works, together with the site for a grist mill, will be sold together or separate as may appear most eligible at the time of sale.

The dwelling hofes are, many of them, nearly new, well built, and conveniently contrived; purchasers may be accommodated with a few acres of land convenient to them, as part of the lands will be reserved for that purpose.

20 Lots on the road leading from Bristol to the ferry, of 60 feet front and 200 feet deep.

10 lots on a road of 60 feet wide, laid out parallel with the river and below the ferry.

Each lot containing 3 x 5 acres, with a front of 160 feet on the river, and running back to a public road at the distance of from the front view of the river, with a free passage to and from it, will by contract be always kept open.

FARMS.

A farm called Lanson's, containing 110 acres, 40 of which are good wood-land, with a farm house, barn, stable, out buildings, an excellent orchard, with a good cyder press.

A farm called Bayley's, fronting the post road, containing 149 acres, with a good new two-story frame house and new barn, remarkably well watered and timbered.

A farm called Clark's, between the road leading to Philadelphia and that to Falls-town, containing 180 acres, on the farm is a new house and barn.

A farm called Lovet's, containing 100 acres of good fresh land, with a good new house and barn.

100 acres, part wood land, between the main road and the river, without buildings.

100 acres called Butler's, with a house and barn.

Watson's farm, containing 285 acres, with a brick hofe, barn and stables, it has a landing on the river; this tract may be conveniently divided.

Moone's farm, with 120 acres, a good brick hofe and barn, and a landing on the river.

182 acres adjoining the above.

A bad fishery on the river Delaware, with 69 acres of excellent land, including an island called Goat Island, with the right of landing on the main and establishing a ferry to Lambertton. There is on this place a tenant's hofe, and one for curing fish; it rears at present for 200l. per annum.

293 acres of excellent up-land, well fenced, and affording several fine situations for buildings; part of this tract is wood land.

The sale will commence at ten o'clock in the morning, and continue until the whole are sold.

The terms of payment are 1-3 down, 1-3 in one, the other two years, with interest, secured by a mortgage on the premises.

An abstract of 5 per cent. will be made for any monies paid in advance.

A survey and plat of the whole estate may be seen by applying to Henry Clymer, Esq. at Morrisville, who will give the necessary information to persons enquiring.
