The Constitutional Gazette; AND Republican Courier.

The Subscriber respectfully offers to the Public, proposals for a Newspaper, under the title of the Constitutional Gazette; and Republican Courier.

It is intended to be published three times a week in the city of Philadelphia; viz. on every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening. The subscription will be free dollars per annum, half to be paid by subscribers in the city when called for. The difficulty of collecting small sums in the country, renders it necessary to ask the subscription, out of the city, to be paid in advance, or the name of a person in Philadelphia who will pay them regularly.

Although the proposed Newspaper will be of a smaller size than the unhandy sheets now generally in use, it will contain as much as the generality of the daily Gazettes. It is expected that a very small portion of it will be occupied by advertisements, which will occasion an unusual quantity of intelligence and information. It will be published in the quarto form, and regularly paged, to render it convenient for binding in volumes, to each of which an index will be attempted.

The principles intended to be supported, are those of the Federal and State Constitutions. The friends of the tranquillity, peace and happiness of this country, may rely on a calm, decent and firm adherence to those valuable Republican codes: The Editor is unwilling to make large promises, but he assures his friends and the public, that he has ground to rely on important literary and political contributions from various sources. Without such an expectation, he would not have undertaken, at this time, to publish a new Gazette. He believes the Press to be the noblest instrument in the command of Freedom, and he flatters himself that The Constitutional Gazette will not be found among the most exceptionable, nor among the least useful.

Subscriptions are received by the different booksellers, and at the subscriber's office, No. 90, South Third street, at which place the Weekly Magazine continues to be published. EZEKIEL FORMAN. Philadelphia, March 23d, 1799.

THE undersigned having examined Jacob Perkins' new invented method to detect counterfeit Bank paper, do approve of the plan, it being impossible to engrave or sink two plates perfectly alike, without the original die or hub, the counterfeiters would find it impossible to make an impression which would perfectly gage with the check from the original die.

East-India News.

FROM PAPERS RECEIVED BY THE GEORGE BARCLAY, CAPT. M'ALLISTER.

CALCUTTA, August 20.

A variety of reports have been in circulation during the past week, of the hostile designs of Tipoo Sultan. A letter is said to have been intercepted, addressed by him to the Executive Directory of the French Republic, in answer to certain proposals made on their part, in which he agrees to join them in hostilities against the British possessions in India, on condition of their furnishing him with a certain number of European artificers, and a squadron of men of war, which are to rendezvous at M. in alore. We give this merely as the report of the day, without vouching in any degree for its authenticity.

Private letters from Madras mention, that an army of observation has been directed to assemble in the Carnatic, and if Tipoo has any serious intention of hostility, we have no doubt, from the great vigilance and energy of the present government, that we will be fully prepared to meet him.

There has been no arrival in this port during the past week; we may, however, reasonably expect the arrival of the Worcester and Princess Charlotte very soon.

It is imagined, from the non-arrival at Madras of the remainder of the fleet of India, in company with whom the Princess Charlotte sailed from England, that they have put into Rio de Janeiro, for refreshments.

Rear Admiral Rainer, the officers and men of his majesty's squadron have voluntarily subscribed one month's pay for the assistance of Great-Britain in the continuance of the war.

We can collect nothing from our Poona correspondence that throws any light upon the real situation of Scindea; one circumstance, however, has taken place, that would be accounted extraordinary in any other than their changeable politics.

Nana Furnavele, who upon the last shifting of the scene was observed to be transported, a State Prisoner, to the Fortress of Amednagar, where it was supposed he would languish the few remaining years of life; is designed to appear once more upon the stage.

The Old Minister has withdrawn from his confinement on the 17th inst, and at the date of our accounts was encamped under the custody of a thousand horse and three or four battalions, commanded by Fackerjee Ghadwah between the Villages of Kutterabad and Mundavgunny. Report alleges that a superior force belonging to the Peshwa, is gone against Fackerjee Phadwah, to rescue Nana from the power of Scindea.

There are accounts also, that Purseram Bhow, by the aid of Rafta, has escaped from his confinement, and is at the head of some thousand horse in the neighbourhood of Whye.

Extract of a letter from Cawnpore, dated 22d August, '98,

"Nothing but war is breathed here, tho' I am of opinion that we shall be all very peaceable yet—a report came from Lucknow yesterday, that Zemaun Shaw had been murdered by his uncle, but the truth of this is doubted.—Almas All Khan is certainly at the point of death, and the Nabob's troops are ready to take possession of his effects as soon as he expires."

Our latest advices from Poona, mention confidently, that a very considerable force has actually entered the Marratta territories and that a much larger body of troops, was preparing with the utmost expedition at Hyderabad, at the head of which the minister Mufhire ul Mulk, would himself take the field.—Col. Finglas, an officer lately in the Marratta service, and at present in that of Nizam Ally Khan, is also to be employed on this service, with a body of troops that he has raised within these last twelve months in the vicinity of Hyderabad, said to amount to about eight thousand men.

His highness the Nizam Ally Khan, being too old and infirm for military achievements, will take up his residence in the castle of Golcondah, where he and his immense treasures, will be carefully guarded by the Bengal detachment under Col. Hyndmaa.

Nanna Furnavees, whom we mentioned in our last, having been arrived within twelve miles of Scindea's camp, under charge of major du Pratt, has since reached Scindea's camp, under a very strong escort.

We have not been able to ascertain the reason of Nana Furnavees having been sent for—whether Dowlat Row Scindea means to avail himself of Nanna's talents, in some mediatory negotiation, one being at present on the tapis between Scindea and the Peshwa, or to work on the Nanna's fears in order to extort money from him, it is not certainly known. Dowlat Row Scindea, is represented to be in the utmost distress for want of money, nor is it at all probable that Nanna will be induced to supply him with any.

Extract of a letter from Poona.

"Notwithstanding the formidable preparations, both in Scindea's camp, and that of Emeret Row, the latter of which is to be reinforced by the Nizam's detachment, yet the general opinion that prevails here, is that the business will end in a negotiation, as being more congenial to the disposition of the Marrattas; and as the preliminary Rep it is reported that Nanna Furnavees is to be set at liberty; that a considerable supply of cash is to be advanced to Scindea, in order to satisfy the pressing demands of his troops; and that he is then immediately to quit the vicinity of the capital.—How far these reports are well founded, it would be difficult to say, nor indeed can I hazard a conjecture, how matters will be terminated; but whether it is ended by negotiation or resource is had to the sword, you will find hear from

Yours &c. [Bomb. Gaz.]

September 17.

By letters from the Barrahmahal district we are informed, that Tipoo Sultan, with a considerable army, was encamped near Bangalore, but had not evinced any hostile motion—it being the season in which he reviews the army stationed in that part of his dominions. A small body of Frenchmen was attached to the Sultan's army, but are represented to be in so unhealthy a state, that considerable numbers had died, and the disease had not ceased when the accounts left the Sultan's camp.

October 19.

On Friday last accounts were received in town, of the safe arrival in the river of the Dart, Captain John Butler, from the coast of Pedler.

By this ship we learn, that while she was at the Island of Rorneo, a small prow arrived and gave them some information regarding two large French frigates that had sailed through the straits of Macassar.

These can be no other, than the La Forte and Prudente, with Dutch pilots on board, bound to Manila and the China seas; we trust, however, the force in that quarter, will fully answer every purpose of protecting our trade, and of giving these republicans a hearty drubbing.

October 23.

The intelligence respecting the expedition against Egypt by the French government received at Bombay from Suez, by the Panther cruiser, which was submitted to our readers on thursday last, is very unsatisfactory, and we fear it will be some considerable time before we obtain any correct information on the subject, as the usual season for vessels leaving the guloh for India we understand, was nearly expired when the Panther left it.

We are happy, however to learn, that a very strict examination of the officers and passengers in the Panther has been made by the Bombay government, and that from the information obtained, there is very strong reason to credit the report of the destruction of the French fleet, in the roads of Alexandria, by an English Squadron.

Whether the French government meditate any thing further than the subjection of Egypt, by the expedition to Alexandria, time will shew;—if their intention is to make a passage to India by that route, they will find difficulties to surmount, probably beyond their expectations; for, admitting that they can make good their way to Suez, (which we understand, is a very doubtful point) and there obtain vessels to bring them down the Gulph even to Mocha, they can proceed no further, unless they can command a superior naval force to the English; as two frigates stationed in the Straights of Babelmandel, would completely prevent their passage into the Arabian seas;—and any attempt to come by land must be impracticable.

October 29.

The ship Corwallis, Captain Robertson, arrived at Madras from hence on the 4th current, as did also the American ship Sansom on the 6th.

Letters of recent date received from the Eastward, mention that the French frigates La Forte and Prudente, passed through the Straights of Macassar on the 37th July last, supposed to be bound either to Manila or China.

Letters of recent date, from Futty Ghur, of respectable authority, mention that Zemaun Shaw, so far from being active in the long threatened invasion of Hindostan, was, by the latest advice, quietly seated in his capital, without any apparent intention of leaving it.

November 2.

PROCLAMATION.

Whereas the security and defence of this Presidency require that the corps of militia, composed of the inhabitants of the town of Calcutta should be re-established and embodied under such regulations as the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council shall order and direct.

His Lordship in Council relying on the loyalty and public spirit of the inhabitants of the town of Calcutta, hereby orders and directs all the European, Armenian, and Portuguese inhabitants of the said town, to assemble on the Walk between Chandpaul Gant and Fort William, to be there duly mustered and enrolled.

The Europeans to assemble at the aforesaid place on Wednesday the 7th.

The Armenians on Thursday the 8th, and The Portuguese on Friday the 9th of November, at day-break; and the proper officers are hereby commanded to attend, for the purpose of mustering and enrolling such persons as shall appear and tender their services, according to the tenor of his proclamation.

The following is extracted from a letter, dated the 11th of E. ance, August 14, 1798. If any evidence were yet wanting, to show the fallacy of French principles, we presume this letter, the authenticity of which cannot be doubted, would be conclusive, since it proves that the levelling system, or liberty and equality, as it is called, wherever established, invariably produces anarchy and confusion, rapine and injustice. The rights of nations are every where invaded by these levellers; the protection that a neutral vessel heretofore obtained, is now denied at the Mauritius—the administration of justice is become a mere mockery, and the governor so far from possessing any authority, is compelled to sanction by his signature, the most fraudulent acts.

"A few hour after your departure from Batavia, the Orion (an American vessel) weighed, and after a disagreeable passage arrived here on the 13th of last month; the reports at Batavia were so unfavorable to our getting hands, that we thought it best to proceed with the few we had; three or four getting sick on the passage, we found it would be madness to attempt doubling the
