Extract of a letter, dated Camp near Ram-pourab, 13tb October, 1798. "You have of courfe heard of the movement of our detachment, and the fubfequent one of General Stuart, with the whole Futty THE underfiched having examined Jacob Ghur flation to join us. After having lain Perkin's new invented method to detect coun- i encamped before Bereilli ten days, we this day made a retrogade movement to this place, where one battalion had recroffed the Ram Gunga, and we follow to-morrow, in order to form a speedy, junction with Gen. Stuart; Befoulah is mentioned as the rendezvous. The Prince accompanies us with three battalions, a thouland horfe and eight guns; he is a very fine young man indeed, he has lately been appointed Governor of Bereilli.

> " After the junction takes place, in order to avoid encroaching on the dominions of the Rohillas, we shall commence our march to Moradabad, a place fituated exactly on the frontiers, when a formal demand is to be made of Golaun Mahomed's family, and in cafe of a refufal to deliver them, it is faid that force will be used to obtain possession of them. They are to be conducted to Lucknow, where they are to refide, as hoftages for Golaum's future conduct.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs has alfo ent the following letter to the Diplomatic Agents, and Confuls of the French Repubc, in foreign countries :

"1 fend you, citizens, a copy of an arof Bramaire 28 [Nov. 18th.] I requeft you to give it the greateft publicity. The event to which this article alludes, would have not taken place, if the administrators of the current accounts, too confident in this fituation, had not difguiled the amount of the fums which citizen Monneron owes to the cheft. However, it was fufficient to flate publicly the fituation of the cheft, to diffipate every uneafinefs. It has refumed immeliately its usual fervice : its bills are received every where as cafh, and nothing re-mains of that event but the ufual regrets which commonly follow groundlefs alarms. Malevolence will certainly not fail to paint it abroad in other colours ; it will be fufficient for you to oppose to it the truth. Health and Fraternity.

Extract of a letter from a young gentleman of this city, dated on board the General Greene, March 6, 1799.

Dear Sir,

"Since I laft wrote you by the Lavinia, capt. Carfon, via Philadelphia, informing you of our fafe arrival on our flation, we have been at the Havannah to water, and fince that, have been convoying Americans to and from that port. We had not the good luck of falling in with an enemy till the 5th inft. when we came across a French privateer who ftruck to us after the fourth thot. On boarding her, fhe proved to be a schooner pierced for twelve guns, and imall arms, &c. and man-ned with 26 men. She had left the Havannah the day before we took her, and the captain had faid, that in lefs than 24 hours fter he was out, he would have three or cale the relection is to be made with due attention to length of fervice and merit. The drefs of the Golandauz is to conform as much as poffible to that of the European artillery-men; after the commander in chief fhall have approved of a pattern coat, boun-ty cloathing will be prepared, they are to be armed and accoutted in the fame manner as the European artillery. the European artillery. The importance of the Golandauz efta-bliftment is fo obvious, and the utility to be derived from it, fo much depending on the proper choice of men, and their fubfequent training and inftruction, that the comman-der in chief cannot too ferioufly cojoin the ntmoft vigilance and exertion in thefe points on the part of the officers commanding com-panies, of the commandant of artillery, of the officers commanding battalions and de-tachments, and of the Major Generals in command of flations. All sefe on board the Commodore, and in irons. She and her cargo will amount to about 4000 dollars. Our commodore means, when we return to port, to have her manned and armed out of the fleet, and being a faft failer, fle will certainly be an acquifition to our little fquadron. There are at prefent in the Havanna, a cutter mounting 16 nines, and a fshooner of 14 fixes, likewife another in a port to windward, with the fales of feveral American prizes on board to the amount of nearly 40,000 dollars. We are continually on the look out for thefe gentlemen, and have not the leaft doubt be-fore the cruife is over, we fhall have the gentlemen, and nave not the tealt donot be-fore the cruife is over, we fhall have the whole or part of them, and so clear thi scoalt of these plundering picaroons fo ruinous to our commerce."
