JACOB PERKINS,

HAVING invented an effectual check for detecting counterfeit Bank Paper, which has received the sanction of one Bank, and the approbation of the undersigned eminent artists, and having obtained a patent, securing to him, and to his assigns, the exclusive right of the invention, hereby offers to his fellow citizens the privilege of using it upon terms, to be agreed on between him and any person disposed to avail himself of a guard against counterfeits.

THE undersigned having examined Jacob Perkins' new invented method to detect counterfeit Bank paper, do approve of the plan, it being impossible to engrave or sink two plates perfectly alike, without the original die or hub, the counterfeiter would find it impossible to make an impression which would perfectly gage with the check from the original die. ROBT SCOT, Engraver & Die sinker JAMES SMITH, Engraver. JAMES AKIN, Engraver. The terms may be known by applying to No. 11, South 3d street. March 23. 2awtf

One Hundred Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the Subscriber, on Tuesday the second of this inst. April, living in Kent county, Maryland, near Cheller Town, the following described Negroes, viz. William, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a yellowish complexioned fellow, about thirty years of age, formerly the property of doctor William Matthews, he has been very much given to running away, and has been so often described in the public papers within this twelve months that any further description of him seems needless. Jacob, about 6 feet high, and about 32 years of age, of a common Negro complexion, down look, his little finger of his left hand stands straight, occasioned by the cut of a fiddle. Pat, the wife of said Jacob, about 27 years of age, a small light made woman of a yellowish complexion, with thick lips for an American of her stature, she is a very good needle woman, and spins on either small or great wheel, and is very handy in any common house work. Two children of the said Jacob's and Pat's, the one a male child about four years old, the other a female child about two years old. The above described Negroes took with them, besides their own wearing apparel, three coats, two of which were liny cloth of a light grey color, both new; one of the two was a great deal too large for either of the said fellows; the other coat of brown cloth, half worn; three under jackets, one a velvet, another a drab, the other a light colored liny cloth do, one new pair of Cass skin shoes, lined with linnen and bound with leather, one pair of boots remarkably large in the legs, several pairs of stockings and a silver watch, all stolen: their own wearing apparel as follows—William had on a light horse regimental coat worked with silver twist, (which coat he had when he was brought home to me the first of February last), a round faja jacket (blue,) thickset breeches, patched with corduroy in the stride, with other necessary clothing. Jacob, two liny cloth coats, lead colored, one new the other half worn, blue liny cloth jacket, half worn, two pairs of liny cloth trowsers, of a lead colour, the one new the other half worn, tolerable good shoes and stockings. Pat has every day clothing, and her children wore home-made linnen and liny, her other clothing not so well known; it is uncertain which course they may take, as William is such an experienced coaffer. Any person or persons apprehending said negroes or founding them, so that their master may get them again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or in proportion for either of them, that is to say, 40 dollars for each of the fellows, and twenty dollars for the wench and children, and if brought home, all reasonable charges paid by BENSON GEARS. N. B.—All masters of vessels and others, are forbid harboring them at their peril. B. G. april 8, 1799. d3w

A PERSON

WELL acquainted with the mercantile business, also a judge of the forms of establishing rights to houses and lands, in the states of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, N and S. Carolina, and Kentucky, would be willing to engage, for a few months, if proper encouragement was given, to go to any part of the United States, or down the river Mississippi, to transact business, collect debts, or examine lands or land offices &c. It may happen that one person's business would not afford the expenses, or be an object for one person to go purposely, but it may happen also that a number may have business to do in the same state, or adjacent states, and then the expenses will come light upon each. The person who offers can be well recommended, and if necessary will give security for his conduct. For further particulars inquire of the Printer. april 24. w.s. m.w.f. 3t

JUST PUBLISHED,

By Wm. YOUNG, Embellished with an emblematical plate, THE HISTORY OF THE DESTRUCTION OF THE HELVETIC UNION AND LIBERTY.

By J. MALLET DU PAN. ITS situation (Switzerland's) is correctly and energetically drawn in the picture of Athe's, let us by a writer of the middle ages, after the invasion of Alaric, It is the empty and bloody skin of an immolated victim! She has nothing left but ROCKS, RUINS and DEMAGOGUES! Preface, p. 5.

That the people of the United States may profit by the errors and calamities of Switzerland, is the object of the present undertaking. Here, the same means are employed, the same engines set at work, which, in their destructive progress, annihilated the Helvetic Union and Liberty. Those who have a Union and Liberty to preserve, will do well to attend to the pages of Mallet Du Pan, and from his interesting details, wife maxims, and sagacious instructions, learn the salutary lessons drawn from the downfall of his own country.

Also—POEMS on various Subjects, by Robert Southey, Author of Joan of Arc. "It can scarcely be necessary for us formally to recommend this little volume to the notice of our practical readers, and its author to their esteem. No one who possesses a true relish for Poetry, we conceive, will open with indifference, a volume by the author of Joan of Arc. Genius is a despotic power, and irresistibly commands homage."
