Br ROBERT PROUD,

In two oclave volumes.

A work entirely new, original, and highly interesting; embellished with a Portrait of the head of William Penn, and a new Map of Pennfylvania, New-Jersey, Maryland, and the State of Delaware, and parts adjacent.

In this publication are exhibited the remarkable rise, happy progress, and extraordinary prospective.

In this publication are exhibited the remarkable rife, happy progrefs, and extraordinary prosperity of that province, till near the time of the declared independency of the United States of America; effected by such uncommon and pacific means such singular, just and prudent policy, as appear no where in the history of nations, to have so generally, and so extensively prevailed, in any other country, to an equal degree of advancement, importance, and selicity of the people, and so generally to have excited the admiration of all observers, as in the flourishing and happy state of the province of Pennsylvania:—proper to be known and remembered by all those, who wish to be informed in the extraordinary melioration of this country, and in the means of rendering the inhabitants so happy and prosperous in former time; as well as an egregious example for posterity and forrounding states to imitate and improve upon, &c.

Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, March 3. We have full to notice the non-arrival of the Hamburgh mails, fourteen of which are this day due. The length of time that has elapsed fince the thaw, and the number of days during which the wind, though adserfe, has been moderate, begins to render his interruption of our communication with the continent unaccountable, and when added to reveral other circumstancec, somewhat

By a broken feries of Paris papers which arrived in the early part of the week, it apthe French minister at Hamburg, declared to the senate that his public functions in their city had ceased. Such intimations, when lirectory, have feldom failed to be follow- The Spanis urprizing, if the French, recollecting the enefits they derived from the frost in Holland, which chained the Dutch shipping to their ports, should have availed themselves of a like savorable occasion to seize upon Tamburgh, and the immense mass of merhandize that lies weatherbound within its

The north-eastern provinces of Holland, Groninguen and Friezland) which are adjacent, not to fay contiguous, to Hamburgh would afford them the means of striking with promptitude a blow as favorable to their schemes of plunder, as it would be ruinous to that object of their inveterate en-mity the British commerce—ablow that would be felt throughout this whole island; and that would produce particular diffress and confernation in this great trading city.

That fuch an event is not altogether out of the contemplation of government, seems to be strongly implied by the orders given to detain the packets at Yarmouth, till there shall be some arrival from the continent.

It has long been matter of furprise to many, that so tempting a bait to republican rapacity as Hamburgh, should so long have escaped their fangs; and indeed their abstinence is not to be easily accounted for, un-less we suppose that they wanted a pretence or the confent of the cabinet of Berlin, We have feen too much of their address in negociation; and too much of the vigour of their councils and their arms, to be able to fay that they may not have obtained the acuiescence of the king of Prusha, or have diffained to ask it; and as to a pretence. they certainly have found one in the oblinate detention of Irifimen bearing commissions in the service of the republic.

By letters from General Dundas, at the Cape of Good Hope, we are happy to learn that the Scotch brigade and the 84th regi-ment failed for India on the 4th of Novemer, 1,900 strong, in excellent order. The oys that were enlifted in the Scotch brigade. when it was raifed, were all grown up, flout and healthy, and in the front ranks. The eneral recommended enlifting boys in preerence to men.

Private accounts from Bengal inform us, that the king of Ava has fignified his inten-tion of vifiting the supreme government, for which purpose uncommon preparations were making throughout his country, in a style of great magnificence. The object of this visit is faid to be to congratulate the new governor general, the earl of Mornington; and to fubmit a commercial plan, which the king of Ava has suggested for the benefit of the two NASSAU, March. 26. Arrived here the privateer schooner John and Edward, Miller, from a cruise. Extract from the John and Edward's Log Book.

"Thursday, March 14, 1799, at 1 P. Mooff Bay Fundy, in chace of a fail to windward, but discovering a fail to leeward, which we plainly faw was a large veffel, gave chace, and at four o'clock came within mufket shot; hoisted our union jack, and hailed him, which was answered by hoisting an American enligh and firing three guns right nto us -- we hailed him feveral times, and informed him that we were a British privateer; he paid no attention to that, but kept a continued fire upon us. We then com-menced firing in return, gave him four broad fides, and boarded on the lee-quarter. When we got upon deck, found the cook killed and the rest run below. The captain being ordered upon deck, informed us he was from Jamaica, bound to New-York. The vesel proved to be the ship Cygnet, capt. Gore, of New-York, whom we kept charge of three days, and then discharged them." March 29.

Yesterday morning the privateer Mary Anne, Maxcy, returned from a cruise, with two valuable prizes, viz. two Feluccas from Cadiz, having on board fifty tons of quickfilver, a quantity of flamped paper, &c. &c. the property of the Spanish government.

Both these vessels are commanded by king's pilots, and failed in company with eight o-thers from Cadiz, on the night of February 12th, for La Vera Cruz.

At that time, there were fourteen British ships of the line, and several frigates cruif-ing off Cadiz. The Feluccas being remarkably fast failers, and favored by the night, and a strong breeze off the land, foon got clear of the British squadron; but were chafed almost constantly afterwards, until they were taken in the Old Straits on the 23d inft. by the Mary Anne.

The mafters of one of the Feluccas fays, that the last accounts respecting Buonaparte that he had heard at Cadiz, represented his being at Cairo. He also fays, that Malta had furrendered to the British; and that the Neapolitaus had been severely worsted in several actions with the French.

This day a veffel arrived in fixty hours

The affembling a large force on the Isle of Wight, had been confirmed by the Span-

In consequence of these orders, upwards of thirty thousand men, of all colours and beleriptions, have been actually embodied and drawn to Havanna and its vicinity; and arge magazines of provisions and military tores are now forming.

Admiral Bligh, with the Queen, Thun- I days derer and York, and four or five frigates, is T ruifing between the Dry Tortugas and cape Antonio. All intercourse between the Ha-

The Spanish ordinance against the use of I by hostilities. It would not then be very British manufactures, issued in confequence of orders from the French directory to the degraded humble court of Spain, has bee promulgated throughout Cuba; and all intercourse with the British colonies peremp torily interdicted. At the fame time neutral veffels are allowed to load with produce in all the ports of Cuba.

> Is a French prize brig, fent in fince our laft, have been found a number of official difpatches from general Touffaint, and commissary Roume, to the minister of marine and other heads of departments at Paris.

By these it appears that a very strange game is playing in St. Domingo. Toussaint disclaims all idea of erecting an independent government in that island, avows the strong est attachment and most profound respect to the French republic, accuses Hedouville of the groffest misdemeanors, and expresses an anxious wish to be relieved from the fatigue and dangers of his actual fituation.

.Commissary Roume, in his letter to the Secretary of the executive directory, trustthat credit will be allowed him for what he has accomplished, and that in the actual state of parties and things, nothing more could be effected.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 10 The Treaty with Britain is highly applauded by our merchants. No connecti indeed could be of more benefit to this country, than one with that nation. By a lift just published of all the exports from this port, for the current year, it appears that of 1053 foreign ships that loaded at this port 609 were British, excepting about eighteen, were for their own dominions.

I am informed that the last mentioned article is occasioned by the high price in Britain and Ireland, which has induced your Government topermit the Navy Contractors to purchase here, where it has, in general, been bought, barrels included, below 10s.
