JACOB PERKINS, HAVING invented an effectual check for detecting counterfeit Bank Paper, which has received the sanction of one Bank, and the approbation of the undersigned eminent artists, and having obtained a patent, securing to him, and to his assigns, the exclusive right of the invention, hereby offers to his fellow citizens the privilege of using it upon terms, to be agreed on between him and any person disposed to avail himself of a guard against counterfeiters. THE undersigned having examined Jacob Perkins' new invented method to detect counterfeit Bank Paper, do approve of the plan, it being impossible to engrave or sink two plates perfectly alike, without the original die or hub, the counterfeit would find it impossible to make an impression which would perfectly gage with the check from the original die. ROBT SCOT, Engraver & Dieinker JAMES SMITHER, Engraver. JAMES AKIN, Engraver. The terms may be known by applying to No. 11, South 3d street. 2aw1f

One Hundred Dollars Reward. RAN away from the Subscriber, on Tuesday the 10th of this inst. April, living in Kent county, Maryland, near Chester Town, the following described Negroes, viz. William, about 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, a yellowish complexioned fellow, about thirty years of age, formerly the property of doctor William Matthews, he has been very much given to running away, and has been so often described in the public papers within this twelve months that any further description of him seems needless.—Jacob, about 6 feet high, and about 35 years of age, of a common Negro complexion, down look, his little finger of his left hand stands straight, occasioned by the cut of a fiske. Pat, the wife of said Jacob, about 27 years of age, a small light made woman of a yellowish complexion, with thick lips for an American of her stature, she is a very good needle woman, and spins on either small or great wheel, and is very handy in any common house work.—Two children of the said Jacob and Pat's, the one a male child about four years old, the other a female child about two years old. The above described Negroes took with them, besides their own wearing apparel, three coats, two of which were linsley cloth of a light grey color, both new; one of the two was a great deal too large for either of the said fellows; the other coat of brown cloth, half worn; three under jackets, one a velvet, another a drab, the other a light colored linsley cloth do, one new pair of Calf skin shoes, lined with linnen and bound with leather, one pair of boots remarkably large in the legs, several pairs of stockings and a silver watch, all stolen: their own wearing apparel as follows—William had on a light horse regimental coat worked with silver twill, (which coat he had when he was brought home to me the first of February last), a round sailor jacket (blue), thickset breeches, patched with cutturoy in the strids, with other necessary clothng. Jacob, two linsley cloth coats, lead colored, one new the other half worn, blue linsley cloth jacket, half worn, two pairs of linsley cloth trousers, of a lead colour, the one new the other half worn, tolerable good shoes and stockings. Pat has every day clothing, and her children wore home-made linnen and linsley, her other clothing not so well known; it is uncertain which course they may take, as William is such an experienced coaler. Any person or persons apprehending said negroes or founding them, so that their master may get them again, shall be entitled to the above reward, or in proportion for either of them, that is to say, 40 dollars for each of the fellows, and twenty dollars for the wench and children, and if brought home, all reasonable charges paid by BENSON GEARS. N. B.—All masters of vessels and others, are forbid harboring them at their peril. B. G. april 8, 1799 d3w
