ROPOSALS,

fur sace Company of North America. NSURANCE against Fire, on Dwelling-stare Houses, and other Buildings (and scontained in such Buildings) diftant from Philadelphia, in the United States.

Philadel, hua, in the United States. I. Common Infurances, on hazards of the firft clafs, will be undertaken at a premium of about halt per cent. per annum. For extra bazardous ivill vary according to circumflances, feldom ex-ceeding one pet cent. per annum; but in fome in-flances, where the property infured is not only in iffelf extra hazardous, but rendered full more fo by the vicinity of extra hazardous buildings and according to circumflances. Moufes and Ware Houfes, the walls and perti-fions of which are wholly of flone or brick, well onfuructed, fo as to be guarded as well as may be against fires from within, and tree from extra ha-zardous buildings and occupations in their neigh-borhood, will be deemed hazardous of the firft clafs, and may be infured to their full value. Mof Goods and Merchandize, not or an extra fronted in fuch buildings, to an amount not ex-ceeding 4000 dollars ; bat if more than this fum is required to be infured in one tenement, an addie ional preminum ble cequired, in proportion to circumflances.

tional premium will be required, in proportion to circumftances.

II. Infurances will also be made on buildings and goods extra hazardous, at premiums proportioned to the rifque. But it is not eafy to arrange thefe under particular heads or claffes, fo as to deferibe each with the neceffary accuracy. Each cafe muft therefore be decided upon according to the circum-flances attending it ; and thefe circumflances will, in general, appear from the defeription accompa-nying the application. Buildings partly confiruêted of brick or flone, are preferable to those wholly wooden. And in both cafes, the file of building, how they are oc-capied, how they are fituated, the neighboring buildings, and how occupied, are confiderations to be taken into view. And with respect to goods, their tendency, whether from their nature, or from the manner in which they are exposed, either II. Infurances will alfo be made on buildings and their tendancy, whether from their nature, or from the manner in which they are expofed, either to commence or to increafe an accidental fire, and their liability in fuch flate to receive damage by wet, or by fudden and hafty removal, or to be fo-len in time of confusion and hurry, are all cir-cumfiances of weight; and the premiums muß be proportioned accordingly. III. The following conditiont are to be under-flood by the parties.

flood by the parties. rft. The infurance is not binding till the flipu-lated premium be paid; but it fhall be deemed ef-fectual from the time of fuch payment and accep-tance thereof, whether the policy be immediately figned or not. 2d. Infurances may be renewed at the expira-tion of the term of the policy, without further ex-pendes than the payment of the premium of the re-newed term, the circumflances continuing the fame as they were underflood by the Infurers at the time the former infurance was made ; but the payment of the premium is effential to fuch renewal ; and if the party infured fuffers any time to elapfe after the expiration of the former infurance, before he pays a premium for the renewal, he is not infured during fuch time ; sor can the infurance be renew-ed on the former policy but by computing the commencement of the renewal from the expiration of the former infurance. The fubject of infur-ance may newertheles be open to treaty for a new infurance.

autorance. 3d. If any other infurance be made on the fame property ; it must be made known at the time of application, otherwife the policy made on fuch ap-plication will be void. Ath, Goods held in truth, or on confignment, may be infured as fuch in a teparate policy; but they are not to be confidered as infured otherwife. oth. This computery will not be liable or accoun-goods very mater ally in kind, algeneral ate of the value of each kind propoled to infured ; but in the laft particular minute defeription is not expedied.

3. Articles of the following kinds are deem l extra-hazardous, though in various degrees the extra-hazardous, though in various degrees, in whatever building they may be placed, viz, pitch, tar, turpentine, rofin, wax, tallow, oil, inflammable fpirits, fulphur, hemp, flax, cot ton, dry goods of an inflammable kind, open-ed.—Glais, china ware or procelain, effectially unpacked; Looking glaffes, jewelery; and all other articles more than commonly inflamma-ble, or more than commonly liable to injury by idden reaction by mediumes. or natticularly dden removal or by meiftures, or particularly
