G. SHAW, Respectfully informs the public, be has received

ROBERT JOHNSTON,
Apothecary, No. 20, Green street, Soho, London, a fresh and very considerable supply of his highly esteemed Medicine.

WARE of the depredations made on every public medicine of established repute and extensive sale, R. Johnston, obtained the King of England's Parent for his invention, not "to recommend" but "to distinguish," Whitehead's Estence of Mustard from Effence of Mustard from SPURIOUS IMIT ATIONS.

"Five years have now elapsed fince Mr. Johnston first made known to the world this very extraordinary medicine; during this short period, its efficacy has been so clearly demonstrateed that its sale has far exceeded any former example; comparitively there are sew families in England or the United States which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects and with heartfelt satisfaction he had the happiness to declare Whitehead's Essence of Mustard has cured more persons afflicted with Riseumatisms, Gout, Lumbago, Palsy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies.

Than all the Medicines ever before made public, indeed, the instances, of its efficacy and letters of acknowledgment from "the most respectable characters" are so numerous that a large volume could not possibly contain them, the use and recommendation of the full families in England, Ireland and America.

A COUNTERFEIT.

R. JOHNSTON has reason to believe a large quantity under the name of "Improved Essence of Mustard," as well as many others haben shipped for America, and considers it his duty to prevent imposition and disappointment.

It therefore requests the afficient to be particular in the purchase of his bottles, boxes, labels, and bill of directions which are closely copied, and words "by royal authority," artfully substituted for the words 'by the king's patent' which may clude common observation.

The Genume is distinguished by the signature of R. Johnston, in his own hand writing on each label, and as an additional security is further signed on the outside wrapper by his only agent for the United States, G. It is a certain and effectual remedy, feldom requiring more than three or four applications.

To the candid and liberal of the FACULTY, R. Johnston respectfully submits the following observations. The Fluid Essence of Mastard, is an embrocation worthy their particular attention, it differs in its nature from all others, and is out of the beaten tract of general practice—It is an active stimulant, easily controuted; may be either increased or diminished in its strength by the different methods of wie, it is both elegant and convenient and is frequently found in the extemporaneous prescriptions of their bretheren in England.

The above Genuine Medicine, as well as many others of the sirft celibrity may be had by appointment of G. Shaw, of Mr. G. Bailey, Wilmington, Dr. Barrill, Maiden Lane, New-York, Messrs. Bailey and Walker, Charleston, William Black, Salem, (N. J.) Charles Hunitch, Lancaster, A. C. Jorden, Norfolk, John Roberts, do. David Keen, Sweet Springs, Vir-

Agents are appointed by G.
