A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR By an American Gentleman

By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its diffinguished merit, and to the take of those for whose amuse ment and delight it is intended. No expence has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America.—

This edition has an advantage over some sormer ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Episse which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taile to admire, the justice to applased, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of pland, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of

The nations.

Some Copies have been fent on to Mr. Somewile, Maiden Lane, New York, also to Mr. Hill, Bultimore, and to Mr. Young, Charleston.

Copies will be sent to Boston and other places, as non asociations offer.
