TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia, FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE JOURNALS OF CONGRESS, FROM THE COMMENCEMENT Of the American War, in 1773, to the present times,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new nest size, in large octavo.
Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.
Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscriber is a come possessor of a valuable record, concomitant may be added to their libraries.
The price to subscribers will be 2 dollars, 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dollars, whole bound; but, as the publisher does not intend to print many more than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.
Each volume will contain about one third less of letters-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.
Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.
Subscribers will have at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a careless neglect, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those respects, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, if they had not been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, cheerfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors —founders of the Columbian nation.
* * * The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired: Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.
To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.
"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,
"Respectfully presented,
"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand, that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print the public records, and that he has obtained partial encouragement from many individuals; but that he has delayed proceeding, in the expectation of encouragement from government, that may significantly indemnify him: We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

JOHN DORSEY, fec'y, pro tem.
Philadelphia, May 15, 1799.
The printers of news-papers throughout the United States are requested to insert the above a few times,
G. SHAW,
Respectfully informs the public, he has received from
ROBERT JOHNSTON,
Apothecary, No. 20, Green Street, Soho, London, a fresh and very considerable supply of his highly esteemed Medicine.
AWARE of the deceptions made on every public medicine of established repute and extensive sale, R. Johnston, obtained the King of England's Patent for his invention, not "to recommend" but "to distinguish," Whitehead's Eflence of Mustard from SPURIOUS IMITATIONS.
"Five years have now elapsed since Mr.
Johnston first made known to the world this very extraordinary medicine; during this short period, its efficacy has been so clearly demonstrated that its sale has far exceeded any former example; comparatively there are few families in England or the United States which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects and with heartfelt satisfaction he had the happiness to declare Whitehead's Eflence of Mustard has cured more persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Palsy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies.
Than all the Medicines ever before made public, indeed the instances of its efficacy and letters of acknowledgment from "the most respectable characters" are so numerous that a large volume could not possibly contain them, it has also obtained the approbation of the most eminent men of the faculty and is honored by the use and recommendation of the first families in England, Ireland and America.
A COUNTERFEIT.
R. JOHNSTON has reason to believe a large quantity under the name of "Improved Eflence of Mustard," as well as many others, has been shipped for America, and considers it his duty to prevent imposition and disappointment.
He therefore requests the afflicted to be particular in the purchase of his bottles, boxes, labels, and bill of directions which are closely capelled, and words "by royal authority," artificially substituted for the words "by the king's patent" which may elude common observation.
The Genuine is distinguished by the signature of R. Johnston, in his own hand writing on each label, and as an additional security is further signed on the outside wrapper by his only agent for the United States, G. SHAW, No. 197 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, by whom it is sold wholesale and retail, in pills and in a fluid form at one dollar each, box or bottle FOR CHLUBLAINS, SPRAINS AND BRUISES,
It is a certain and eflacious remedy, seldom requiring more than three or four applications.
To the candid and liberal of the FACULTY, R. Johnston respectfully submits the following observations. The Fluid Eflence of Mustard, is an embrocation worthy their particular attention, it differs in its nature from all others, and is out of the beaten track of general practice—It is an active stimulant, easily controuled, may be either increased or diminished in its strength by the different methods of use, it is both elgant and convenient and is frequently found in the extemporaneous prescriptions of his brethren in England.
The above Genuine Medicine, as well as many others of the first celebrity may be had by appointment of G. Shaw, of Mr. G. Bailey, Wilmington, Dr. Barrill, Maiden Lane, New-York, Messrs. Daley and Walker, Charleston, William Black, Salem, (N. J.) Charles Hun-nitch, Lancaster, A. C. Jordan, Norfolk, John Roberts, do. David Keen, Sweet Springs, Virginia, R. Lee, Baltimore, I. J. Mantz, Bre-dericktown, Maryland, G. W. Motlins, Abanony, Dr. Vanlangdon, New-York, Messrs. Pit-ford & San, do. Messrs. Rob't & Douglas, Pittsburg, John Webster, Wilmington, James Wilson, do. Richard Winter & Co. Savannah, and in every principal town in the United States.
N. B. The public are desired to enquire for Whitehead's Eflence of Mustard, all others being a base and spurious imitation.
GEO. SHAW, 120, Chestnut street, where Vendura may be supplied.
"Caution against Counterfeits." Agents are appointed by G. Shaw in every principal town of the United States, and there is no certainty of purchasing the Genuine Efflence of Mustard in any part of America, unless it is signed on the outside wrapper by G. Shaw, No. 197, Chestnut street, Philadelphia, where shopkeepers are supplied and a liberal discount allowed them.
