GLEANINGS, FROM LATE LONDON PAPERS.

THE DUKE OF WIRTEMBERG. We have already mentioned the arrest of the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg by the Duke his father. As foon as he was arref-ted the Duke affembled his Ministers, and the young Prince underwent an examination which lasted till midnight : he was then fent to an apartment in the cafile, in the cuflody of a Lieutenant and Adjutant, while two fentinals were posted at the door. The Camberlain De Pfuhl was also taken up and fent to prifon. The following letter from Stutgard explains the motivas of the arrest of the young Prince :---

The King of Prufila had offered to the Duke of Wirtemberg to take his fon into his fervice, and to give him befides a penfion of 4000 German crowns. The Emperor not having been informed of this propofal, and withing to attach the Duke of Wirtemberg to him, offered higher terms than the King of Pruffia. The Duke, unwilling to difof Fruma. The Duke, unwining to di-pleafe either of the two Sovereigns, replied, that his fon was two young (he is 17) and that his education was not completed. He there-fore demanded a year, at leaft, before he fent him abroad. The young Prince informed of this negociation by one of the perfons in his fervice, thinking himfelf too harffuly treated by his father, and major the performance fervice, thinking hundelf too harffily treated by his father, and giving the preference to the fervice of Pruffia, had formed a plan, it is faid to efcape with his confident and to go to Berlin. The correspondence, howev-er, was intercepted, which this confident kept up with his brother, who is in that ca-pital. This is the real flate of the cafe The Prince is full under arreft, and is in a few days to be four to Tabingen feven leagues days to be fent to Tabingen, feven leagues from Stutgard, where he is to finish, it is faid. his courfe of fludies. Tabingen is one of the most celebrated Universities in Germany.

The Prefident of the Court Martial, held on Capt. Thompfon after the Sentence was read, addressed him nearly as follows :

" Captain THOMPSON, I feel the most lively pleafure in returning you the fword with which you have fo bravely maintained the Honour of your King and Country ; the more fo, as I am convinced, that, when you are again called upon to draw it in their defence, that you will add fresh laurels to the wreath which you have already so nobly won."

The thanks of the Court were also given to Sir Edward Berry, who was prefent on this occation, for the gallant and active zeal he manifelted, by giving his affiftance on board the Leander, in the combat with the Genereux ; and upon the return of Captain Thompfon to the fhore from the Court Mar-tial, he was faluted with three cheers by all the fhips in the harbour at Sheernefs.

We have long predicted that the preent order of things in France would not be rmanent. The abufe which the ruling parpermanent. The abule which the running par-ty has made of its power, not only by tyran-nizing over the French people, but by deftroy-ing the independence and robbing the whealth of the neighbouring States, has never been equaled. All that feems wanting at the pre-fent moment is, an internal flock to paralyfe the power of the Directory. Such a favorable moment feems now approaching, by the fucceffes which have attended the Auftrian arms, and the almost entire annihilation of their marine by the British. The moment when it arrives will not be fuffered to pafe without a new revolution in France ; for it is impoffible but the prefent rubbifh, permitted to exist for a time to punish mankind, must be fwept away to make room for a bet-ter order of things !

The Helvetic Republic is proceeding in the mild fleps of its virtuous matron; and to enforce continuance of their affumed authority, the government decreed at Lucerne, on the 29th March, That every Helvetic citizen who, at this request made by the government fhall refuse to march with the chosen body, shall be punished with death : and that every citizen, or foreigner living under the laws of the republic, who either by words or actions fhall oppose the meafures taken by the go-vernment for the defence of the country, or shall attempt to draw others from their obe-dience to the laws, and their duty in their country's defence, or who shall propose to submit. to a foreign power, shall be penished with death!

Holland, it is faid, has undergone a new revolution, in favor of the Stadtholder : effected by the removal of the French guard to the Rbine.—The whole canton of Berne refused to march with the French against the Auftrians ; in confequence every peafant who refufes is to be fhot. The Neapolitans retaliate most revengefully on the French. In all the Grisons, Swiss and other conquered countries, nothing but opportunity is wanting to make the people rife en masse against their French oppressors. Of Egypt, the most recent information ap-paers via Constantinople. It flates, that Ge-zura Pacha, on being informed that the French General Kleber had taken Gaza, in Syria, posted his army in a fituation by which he cut off the communication between Gazaand Cairo : another article mentions, that a Liguarian capt. at Spezzia, about the 27th of March in 20 days from Alexandria, reports that Buonaparte was well at Gaza; that he was mafter of all the keys of Syria, that he was mafter of all the keys of Syria, and that all was quiet in Egypt. Ireland was, politically, in a tranquilized flate : the majority of respectable characters are for the proposed union with G. Britain and are figning petitions to that effect. The Britsth H. of Commons on the 22d April concurred with the Lords in this measure.

PORTLAND, June 5.

What the public mind has long been led to anticipate from the depraved conduct of France, is about unfolding itfelf-and tyranny and domination are on the retreat.

The news from Europe, in the preceding columns, is highly fatisfactory to all good men and true patriots-

It appears, that the begining of the new campaign, the' bloody, has been glorioufly fortunate to the Austrians, both in Italy and Germany. It is with great pleafure we fee that the fame places which in '96 and '97, fo often withefied the defeat of the Auftrians, eare now the theatre of their repeated victories The triumphs of the Auftrians have compel-led the French to evacuate the Tyrol, and withdraw into the Grison country. We are in polifion of lengthy, and of the official accounts those events.

The Combined Powers appear in great fpirits and encreasing activity—and from the additions which they are jointly making to their trains of attack, and from the juffice of their caufe, ultimate fuccefs appears likely to crown their exertions. The first column of the Russians arrived on the 31ft March at Bassano, three thort days march from Ve-rona; kill or be killed, is the maxim of the Muse ites, a principle well calculated to damp the ardor of their French opponent. Corfu is become the rendezvous of the Turks and Russians, of the latter of whom 100,000 troops were expected in Italy. The Emperor Paul is determined on a new levy of 100,000 men.

The Five-headed monfter trembles at its appreaching diffolution. On the 17th April, the Directory fent a meffage to the Council regarding the necellity of putting into full execution the law for raifing the 200,000 conscription men. The meffage flates that it can no longer be delayed, without putting the Republic in danger, as the gigantic efforts of the coalition require the immediate employ-ment of every means left. Jourdan and Bar. nadotte, being taken sick (probably from a conviction that the Auffrian sbeers were closing on their laurels) have left their armies and gone to Paris. A galloping consump-tion, also, is pervading the whole French sys-

The incredible exertions which the party opposed to the measures of the federal go-nernment are making, renders it necessary to nter into fome fystem of this kind. Mr. Rofs is well known, his fimplicity of man-ners, his eafe of accefs, and his abilities fo eminently difplayed in the formation of our flate conflictution and in the fenate of the United States have made his character admired, not only in the flate wherein he lives, but in the different flates of the union ; and will certainly, if elected, fill the office of chief magistracy of the flate of Pennfylvania with honor and dignity.

Herewith is transmitted to you the names of the perfons appointed in each township, and also a copy of a circular letter from the committee in the city of Philadelphia.
