APOETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR

By an American Gertleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a drefs proportioned to its diffinguished merit, and to the take of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expense has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America—

This edition has an advantage over some forme ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and, it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle, which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admize, the justice to appliand, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.
