BOSTON, July 4.
The Students of Phillip's Exeter Academy have engipped themselves as Soldiers, as well as Scholars. On the 13th ult. they paraded in complete and handsome uniform, and were presented, by the young Ladies of Ex-eter with an elegant Standard. On this occasion, the ingenious and classic Editor of the Portimonth Oracle, pays the following

Hail gallant youth in arts in arms renown'ds. Columbia bids her young defenders hail; And wills, that wirtue, glory crown'd A downthestream of time shall deathless sail. The fed'ral hanner which your barque displays, Waswroughtby smale worth, in beauty's loom; And mid the battle's thunder, lightning's blaze, Beneath that standard wait the heroe's doom. What the' he fall? yet women's tears shall lave, Her youthful beroes' consecrated form; The pearl that beauty drops on glory's grave, The patriot dead to new bornlise shall warm.

NEW-YORK, July 8. Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Herkinter, to the Editor of this paper, doted June 26th, 1799.

"On Tuesday the 18th inst. the Circuit Court, and Court of Over and Terminer and ceneral goal delivery, was holden at the Court-House in the country of Herkimer, whose his honor Judge Lewis presided. After the grand jusy were sworn, the Judge rose, and addressed them in a most masterly flyle—he, in a few words, pointed out the origin and object of all governments, and explained their difference—shewed the nature of the focial compact and how necessary it is for the happiness of man-co upon the government and laws of the United States, and of the state of New-York in a particular manner, and pointed out the melent measures against either.—So plain, neat, and forcible was his language, and his ideas so just, and so clearly expressed, that conviction was manifest on the countenances of all who heard—feveral civil and military fuits were tried, in all of which the greatest firm-ness and impartiality, was shewn by the

" Jacob Bell, plead guilty to an inditement of bigamy, and was fentenced to twelve months imprisonment in the state prison, to hard labor.

"Andrew Clapfaddle and Richard Steel, were indicted, for attaking, with others, the house of Michael Myers, Esq. collector of the revenue, with a defign to pull down the fign on which was written "Office of Inspection" and to destroy the stamped paper then in the possession of Mr. Myers—they then in the polletion of Mr. Myers—they were found guilty of a riot—Andrew Clapfaddie was fixed one hundred dollars, Richard Sterl, who appeared to have been accidentally drawn in, was fixed ten dollars. Col. Richard Petry, the bell-weather in the forape was indicted the last Circuit, and admitted to bail, himfelf in 300, and his bail in 150 dollars; he thought prudent not to appear. These were some of the liberty pole lads. The charge given by the Judge to the jury on this trial, and his admonition to the persons fined was highly fatisfactory, and I believe will have a great tendency to check fuch outrages, and to reconcile the minds of fuch outrages, and to reconcile the minds of the people to the laws, than any one event which could probably hare taken place.— Great order and decorum were observed by all who attended the courts

The liberty pole hids never received fuch a transming as Judge Lewis gave them the really labored to convince them of their error, and at the fame time held out the rod of terror, as the only means to check furh outrages. Whill he was painting the melancholy confequences of opposi-tion to the laws, the whole audience were in tears. The liberty pole lads and the framp act men, began to think that their property, liberty and lives were all fliping from under them, and their countenances feemed to dann their own conduct. Such less from a judge are all important to the community, and in a particular manner to this country." [Albany Centinel.

REGIMENT DISBANDED. The following orders were yesterday issued on the parade in St. James's Park:

Monday April 15.

In confequence of communications from the adjutant general field marthal his Roya Highness the Duke of Gloucester orders the ollowing letter to be inferted in the Brigade

I have received the commander in chief' rections to transmit to you the king's plea fure in regard to the 5th, or Royal Irish re-giment of dragoons; which it is his royal highwess the commender in chief's desire that you shall, without delay, carry into execu-

His Majelly has taken into his most serious consideration the representation which has been made by his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland of the conduct of this regiment, and is of opinion that the infubor-dination and departure from the discipline and principles which have ever diffinguished the British army, therein exhibited, required especially in these times of warfare and exertion, that they should be marked by a punishment which may be severely felt and long remembered by those misguided persons who have been guilty of the atrocious acts of difobedience, which have brought this indelible fligma on the corps, and may ferve as an example to all others, as well as the confequences of fuel feditious and outrageous proceedings, and of his Majelly's firm determination to maintain subordination and discipline in his army, and to support the authority in the conference of th ty of his officers in the execution of his

His majesty has been pleased further to direct that you do express this persuasion, that there are many valuable officers in his regiment who have used their best endeavors to restore the order and preferve the credit of the corps, and though in this measure of indispensable severity it was impossible to make any exceptions the majority being clearly implicated in the misconduct in which the whole are suffering yet his majesty will hereafter make the most pointed discrimination, and those of any rank which are deserving to the royal favor may rely on his majesty's disposition to rereward their merit, and to avail himself of their future fervices.

In confideration of the expence to which the officers of the fifth, or royal Irish regi-ment, have been unavoidably exposed, his majesty has been graciously pleased to direct that their full pay shall be continued to them to the 24th of December next, at which pe-
