MÆVIAD.
By WILLIAM GIFFORD, ESQUIRE.

To which is prefixed,
A POETICAL EPISTLE TO THE AUTHOR
By an American Gentleman.

[In introducing this celebrated work to the Gentlemen and Ladies of America, I have endeavored to give it a dress proportioned to its distinguished merit, and to the taste of those for whose amusement and delight it is intended. No expense has been spared in the publication; and I flatter myself that the work does not yield, either in paper or print, to any one ever published in America—This edition has an advantage over former ones, as it contains by way of notes, the minor productions of the author; and it has an advantage over every other edition, in the Poetical Epistle which is prefixed to it, and which must be extremely gratifying to every lover of literature in this country, as it is a proof that there are Americans who have the taste to admire, the justice to applaud, and the talents to rival the Geniuses of other nations.]

Some Copies have been sent on to Mr. Sam-

Copies will be sent to Dublin and other places, as

G. SHAW,
Respectfully informs the public, he has received from
ROBERT JOHNSTON,
Apothecary, No. 20, Green street, Soho, London, a fresh and very considerable supply of his highly esteemed Medicine.

AWARE of the deceptions made on every public medicine of established repute and extensive sale, R. Johnston, obtained the King of England's Patent for his invention, not "a recommend" but "a distinguishing," Whitehead's Effluence of Mustard from

SPURIOUS IMITATIONS.
Five years have now elapsed since Mr.
Johnston first made known to the world this very extraordinary medicine; during this short period, its efficacy has been so clearly demonstrated that its sale has far exceeded any former example; comparatively there are few families in England or the United States which have not either heard of or experienced its beneficial effects and with heartfelt satisfaction he had the happiness to declare, Whitehead's Effluence of Mustard has cured more persons afflicted with Rheumatism, Gout, Lumbago, Palsy, Complaints of the Stomach and other Painful Maladies.

Than all the Medicines ever before made public, indeed, the instances of its efficacy and letters of acknowledgment from "the most respectable characters" are so numerous that a large volume could not possibly contain them, it has also obtained the approbation of the most eminent men of the Faculty and is honoured by the use and recommendation of the first families in England, Ireland and America.

A COUNTERFEIT.
R. JOHNSTON has reason to believe a large quantity under the name of "Improved Effluence of Mustard," as well as many other, has been shipped for America, and considers it his duty to prevent imposition and disappointment.

He therefore requests the afflicted to be particular in the purchase of his bottles, boxes, labels, and bill of directions which are closely engined, and words "by royal authority," artfully substituted for the words "by the king's patent" which may elude common observation.

The Genuine is distinguished by the signature of R. Johnston, in his own hand writing on each label, and as an additional security is further signed on
