IOURNALS OF CONGRESS, Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

The Reports of Heads of Departments, Committees, and other Official and Pr nate Papers of that Body, now first per mitted to be made public.

THE work will be printed on a fize paper, a new neat tipe, in large oftave.

But volume will contain above 500 pageatly bound and lettered.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the except of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

Payments to be made on delivery of each contains.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to fubscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Covern-

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darknets and obfeurity, owing to a carelessness, in the fucceeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in these rudenges, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost in estimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully controlled their affishance in transmitting to posse
