PHILADELPHIA,

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 30.

TOASTS

Drank at Fayetteville (N. C.) July 4, 1799.

The United States of America—may they ever rise in a just sense of their importance in the scale of Nations.

The Congress—may the interest and welfare of their constituents form the basis of their deliberations, and may they have spirit and patriotism to resist insults and injuries.

The Army of the United States—may it always display a triumphant standard.

Timothy Pickens—may America always have a Secretary of State, capable of detecting diplomatic intrigue, and courage to expose it.

May the sword of America never be stained but with the blood of her foreign enemies, and may a neckcloth of Hemp exist in a becoming manner her domestic ones.

All Nations in Amity with the United States.

Robert Goodloe Harper, Esq. the firm supporter of his country's rights and true interests.

FOURTH OF JULY.

The anniversary of the day which afforded America Liberty and Independence was celebrated at Smithfield, (N. C.) by a large number of the inhabitants of the county of Johnson, under the direction of Col. Hardy Brian, President, and Doctor Calvin Jones, Vice President.

At ten o'clock a federal salute was fired, and the American flag hoisted in front of the Court House. At two o'clock the company sat down under a bower erected for the purpose, and partook of an excellent entertainment, after which the following toasts were drunk, accompanied by discharges of musketry, from a part of Capt. Saffer's company, who volunteered on the occasion.

The Day—may the existence of American independence be coeval with time.

The Federal Constitution, the rock of our political edifice.

John Adams, the firm and tried friend of his country, and the shield of its independence.

Truxton, Decatur, and the brave tars of America.

The Congress of the United States—may wisdom and patriotism continue to influence their deliberations.

The Venerable Citizen of Mount Vernon.

May the island of St. Domingo, and the Republics of Europe, ere long be liberated from the Tyranny of the many-headed monster of France.

The University of North Carolina—may it prove the school of statesmen and the nursery of heroes.

His Excellency William R. Davie. "The man of the people."

The Army and the Navy of the United States—may they prove the defenders of our rights, and the scourge of our enemies.

Mason, Gallatin, and the Knight of the Wooden Sword.

May all Jacobins be held up to universal derision, and all trimmers confined to oblivion.

May the Vassal Republics of Europe, induce America to remember that whoever shakes hands with France, must take care of his throat.

The American Tree of Liberty—may our citizens be vigilant in pruning from its branches the feigns of foreign influence.

The memory of those heroes who sealed the cause of American Liberty with their blood. (Maj. Williams.)

The humane and literary institutions of the United States. (By R. Gully, Esquire.)

The American Eagle—in holding forth the Olive Branch of Peace, may he not lose his hold of the Arrows of defence. (By Benjamin Bryan, Esquire.)

The American Cockade—may it stick on as long as the wearer's head. (By Captain W. Sasser.)

NEW-YORK, July 27.

At a Court of Oyer and Terminer held at the City-Hall of the city of New-York, in and for the said city and county, began the 9th day of July, instant, and continued until yesterday, when it adjourned, and passed sentence of imprisonment on the following persons for crimes, affixed to each of their names:

BURGLARY.

John Marchant, to be imprisoned for life at hard labor in the State Prison.

GRAND LARCENY.

Richard Willis, 5 years at hard labor in State Prison. John H. Bay, do. 4. Thomas Smith, do. 4. Baltus Lintz, do. 4. Wm. Chevers, do. 2.

PETIT LARCENY.

Barbara Bembo, 2 years at hard labor in State Prison. Jenny (a black woman) do. 2. Jeremiah Conner, do. 2. William Brown, 3 months hard labor in Bridewell.

Barbara Simmons, do. 2. Mary, (a slave) do. 2; and her master to receive an order to transport her at the expiration of her sentence.

FOR DISORDERLY HOUSES.

Catharine Piper, alias Catharine Murphy 3 months hard labor in Bridewell, and to pay a fine of 100 dollars. Lucy Van Zee, 3 months in Bridewell at hard labor, and to pay a fine of 50 dollars. Jane Mitchell, 60 days hard labor in Bridewell.

RIOTERS.

At 8 1/2 Montague, 60 days in Bridewell at hard labor. John White, 60 days in Bridewell at hard labor; to pay a fine of 30 dollars, and to find sureties for his good behavior for one year, himself in 200, and one surety in 100 dollars. William Rollis and Alexander Montgomery, 30 days imprisonment and 30 dollars fine, with sureties as above.

Garret Westervelt, Henry Mandville, Wm. Leonard, Wm. Williams, Amos Green, Lewis Cooper, for inciting a riot, fined 30 dollars.

VERGENNES, July 18.

In the Lanfingburgh Gazette, we noticed the following anti-Catholic toast—"May every Jacobin, in the world discovered by Columbus, be converted into salt-petre, manufactured into gunpowder, deposited in the powder-room of the gallant Truxton, and from the mouth of his cannon be remitted in the payment of tribute demanded by the five-headed monster. 6 cheers."

A correspondent in Bennington County has sent us the following intelligence of the ludicrous proceedings of the Democrats in Bennington on the fourth of July, with a request for its publication.

"Hafwell's paper announced that a party of Republicans from Bennington and the neighbouring towns would dine at Williamstown, on the fourth of July, and a number of Robinson's under the liberty tree. They accordingly mustered from Shaftsbury and Bennington about thirty, headed by Governor Robinson and Olin, who proceeded on to Williamstown. In Bennington about 11 o'clock they collected about thirty young boys; and at two in the afternoon thirty Democrats joined them at the brick house, over which the French red cap was hoisted.

They chose John Fasset President and Tony the printer vice president. At six o'clock, they passed a vote to march in a body round the meeting house. But, unfortunately, after they had paraded for the march, they learnt that their leaders could not conduct them, both being confined within the limits of the goal yard. This put them into some confusion. They, however, proceeded to nominate two others.

"Que. Do not our printer and Ex-Judge do well to complain of the severity and tyranny of our rulers, who have been so inconsiderate and wicked as to hamper them with laws, which thus mark out the ground, which they shall occupy?"

"It was also noticed that the red cap, which was placed opposite the federal standard, in the course of the day, bowed and fell twice before the other!"

FROM A LONDON PAPER. THAT valuable and much admired Foreign Vegetable, the AMERICAN SQUASH—A very few of the genuine Seed of this esteemed production are now offered to the public, lately imported, and to be depended upon, every seed being picked and good.

The Squash grows on a strong vine, is dressed and brought to table exactly like a turnip, only not peeled, pressed dry, and eat with pepper, salt, and butter; boils in about 15 minutes, and when soft to the touch it is done. The taste resembles the artichoke bottom, but is allowed to be very much superior by the best judges, who deem this particular species of the Squash (there being a great many different sorts) to be one of the very first of vegetables. They are also found to answer in rich soups better than the artichoke, and are distinguished by being equally good in winter, if preserved in a dry place. To be set in April and May; they grow almost any where, without any of that attention which the cucumber requires, their best to be brought forward under glasses, or in pots, to preserve them from birds, cats, and ground mice. To be gathered when of the size of a middling turnip; are of a pale yellow, with beautiful scolloped edges. The vine does not spread much, bears plentifully 4 or 5 months, and is deemed a considerable acquisition. The technical name given to the Squash in botanical descriptions, is the "Cucurbita Melo pepo;" and though not entirely new in England, is very far from being generally known. To be had only at Lewis's Pastry Cook, No. 11 Charing Cross; and at Bailey's Herb Shop, Covent-garden.

Foreign Intelligence.

TRANSLATIONS.

[From Mr. Clairpoole's Paper.]

PARIS, May 14.

The Council of Five Hundred have, at length, in their three last sittings, privately called, determined upon the following ten persons as Candidates for the vacant seat in the Executive Directory, occasioned by the going out of Reubel, to be sent to the Council of Ancients. The following are the Candidates, with the number of votes given to each in the Council of Five Hundred, viz.

1. General Lefevre, 338 votes.
2. Sieys, Ambassador to Berlin 236 do.
3. Duval, Minister of Police, 216 do.
4. Gobier, Ex-Minister of Justice, 232 do.
5. Charles Lacroix, Ex-Minister of Foreign Relations, 203 do.
6. Lacroix, Vice-Admiral, 189 do.
7. Moulins, General of Division, 163 do.
8. Lambrechts, Minister of Justice, 162 do.
9. Martin, Vice Admiral, 161 do.
10. Dupuis, Member of the National Institute, 155.

Next to these Candidates in point of number of votes, were General Brune, Vice-Admiral Bompard, Lacedep, General Muller, Citizen Peltier, Lacombe, Loisel, and Garon Colon. Many of the Deputies have a great desire that a military character may be chosen.

HAGUE, May 10.

The appearance of about twelve British floops of war at the mouth of the Ems and the Watten, caused considerable alarm. An Hollar Regiment and a halfbrigade were commanded to repair to the department of Ems.

FIELDKIRK, May 14.

Luciensteig, which is considered as the key of Chur and Graubunden, was taken this morning about six o'clock. The whole 14th French half-brigade of 3000 men are made prisoners. General Jellachich, by way of Camberdon, attacked the enemy in the rear, and drove them out of their entrenchments. At the same time Field-Marshal Lieutenant Hotze sprung with his battalion to the door of the Luciensteig, and took eight pieces of cannon. The cavalry is pursued. Capt. Romberg, from the headquarters, is gone with this agreeable news to Prince Charles at Stockach.

MILAN, May 4.

A number of new regulations have taken place here. In the sites of all public notices, and other writing, the republican form is abolished, and the same style adopted which was used in the year 1796. All republican arms and signs are done away. The republican central and municipal authorities are united, and put upon their former footing. The National Guard is abolished, and their arms given up to the former Commandant of Milan. The discipline uniform is forbidden under heavy penalties. All officers in the late system were commanded to give up their books and accounts within 24 hours; and whoever had money, or other effects in keeping, belonging to the French, Helvetic or Italian Republics, were commanded to give them up within 24 hours.

VERONA, May 8.

The insurrections in Piedmont continue. The people in many places have cut down the Tree of Liberty. The French army, 5000 men strong, have been obliged to leave the Maritime Alps, and retreat to Coni.

Field-Marshal Suwarow has sent a corps of 20,000 men against Rome, and 12,000 men to Lucca.

The Austrians and Russians continue to spread their force in Piedmont.—Suwarow has his headquarters at Tortona, and General Melas near Vukassovich, in Vercelli. They hold the castle of Tortona, in which they have thrown some thousands of French prisoners. The Imperial troops have also possession of Novi in Genoa. General Moreau has taken an advantageous position in Piedmont, betwixt Coni and Turin, and been reinforced with 30,000 men. Field-Marshal Suwarow, however, is already on his march to attack him.

The Cisalpine Directory, in their flight out of Milan, carried with them, seven millions of livres ready money.

ROVEREDO, May 10.

Betwixt Parma and Piacenza, there is a body of 25,000 Austrian Russian troops.

On the 4th, 10,000 Austrians entered Piacenza.

A Russian corps is marched to Genoa, in hopes of their meeting with the English-Russian fleet.

The report that Alexandria had been taken from the French is unfounded.

In Milan, the people have destroyed the statue of Brutus, which the French had erected; and all goods, the property of Frenchmen, Helveticans, or citizens of the new Italian Republics, are confiscated.

Ten thousand Russians, it is said, have marched through the Val-line into Switzerland, to join the force of Hotze and Bellegarde, and to support the operation of the Archduke Charles.

Patent Ploughs,

To be sold for cash by Joseph Salter at a Store Richard Wells, Cooper's Ferry—Jonathan Harker, Woodbury—and Jesse Evans, Lumberton. Those who have used them give them the preference to any other kind, as they require less team, break the ground better, are kept in order at less expense and are sold at a cheaper rate—the plan is much simplified and consists of but one piece of cast iron, with the handles and beam of wood; they may be belized with wrought lays and coulters to be put on with ferres and taken off at pleasure.

Patent rights for vending with Instructions for making them may be had by applying to John Newbold, or the subscriber No. 212 North Front-Street.
